Words	Parts of Speech	Dictionary Definition	Short sentence	Lexical relationship degrade	Verb	To treat someone in a disrespectful or humiliating way.	This film's depiction of female characters de grades women.	Synonym: demean, disgrace, humiliate Antonym: respect, exalt degree	Noun	A unit of measure.	We were freezing in the 10 de gree cold weather.	Synonym: amount, extent
		An amount or level.	We can only hold her responsible to a certain degree.
		The qualification earned at a college or university.	She worked hard for her law de gree .
delivered	Verb	To be brought to an agreed-upon destination.	The package was de liv ered to her house.	Synonym: brought, provided, supplied Antonym: kept, hold, confined denial	Noun	The state of insisting that something is not true.	He is in de nial about his parents' divorce.	Synonym: contradiction, repudiation
		To refuse a person something.	The de nial of the squatters' rights caused them to protest.	Antonym: confirmation, agreement denominator	Noun	The number in a fraction indicating the whole.	In a quarter, the de nom inator is four.	Synonym: sum, total deposit	Noun	The first amount of money paid in a series of payments.	To begin with, he asked for a de po sit of R200.00.	Synonym: down payment, instalment
		An amount of money that is put into a bank account. The money paid when renting something that is	My mother makes a de po sit at the end of every month after she receives her salary.	Antonym: withdrawal returned to the renter when the rented item has not been damaged.

depressed	adjective	The state of feeling very sad.	He was de pressed about losing his job.	Synonym: sad, melancholy
		To be lower.	There was a hole in the grass where the land was de pressed.	Antonym: joyful, buoyant, positive describe	Verb	To communicate the properties of something or someone.	Can you please des cribe the fastest route to town?	Synonym: report, relate, outline Antonym: obscure desert	Noun	A stretch of land in which nothing or very little can grow.	They were afraid of dying of exposure to the sun in the de sert.	Synonym: wasteland Antonym: fertile, verdant Verb	To leave a position which one is required to occupy.	The worst thing you can do is de sert your friends in their time of need.	Synonym: leave, abandon Antonym: support, reinforce deserve	Verb	To have acted in a way that justifies the way people treat you or an item that is given to you.	We de serve a medal after allour hard work.	Synonym: earn, merit design	Verb	To create or plan the creation of something.	Her de sign of the building was elegant and professional.	Synonym: plan, outline Noun	The plan for the creation of something.	According to his de sign of the wedding dress, there should be pearls on the sleeve.	Synonym: Plan, outline detached	Adjective	To be disconnected from something.	The bathrooms were de tached from the rest of the house.	Synonym: disconnected
		To be unemotional.	He found her detached expression cold and inhuman.	Antonym: attached, connected detract	Verb	To lower the quality or enjoyment of something.	The rainy weather de trac ted from the perfection of his wedding day.	Synonym: lessen Antonym: add, enhance diameter	Noun	A straight line that passes from one side of a circular shape to the other.	When we measured the hole along the dia meter, it seemed big enough to hold all the water.

diaphragm	Noun	The muscles which control breathing.	She explained how the di aphragm moves when we breathe.
		A piece of material in phones or speakers used to convert signals into sound and sound into signals.	He was sure the phone would not work because the diaphragm was broken.
dictionary	Noun	A book containing information providing the definitions and other information about words officially recognized as part of a language.	We looked up the meanings of difficult words in the dic tionary.
diesel	Noun	A type of fuel.	The use of diesel in cars is very harmful to the environment.
different	Adjective	To have features that makes something unlike another thing.	The two sisters were as diff erent as night and day.	Synonym: varied, diverse Antonym: similar difficult	Adjective	To require effort and be uncomfortable or impossible to deal with.	My math homework was so diff icult that I asked my mother to help me.	Synonym: hard Antonym: easy dimension	Noun	The measurement of height, width and length in a space.	We decided that the di men sions of the furniture were too big for the living room.	Synonym: measurement dinosaur	Noun	A prehistoric animal that has been extinct for millions of years.	We saw the skeletons of di nosaurs at the museum.
direction	Noun	An indication of location.	We had to turn around when we realised we were going in the wrong di rec tion.	Synonym: location discourage	Verb	To make someone feel as if they cannot or should not do something.	My parents have always dis cou raged me from being untidy.	Synonym: dissuade Antonym: encourage discover	Verb	To find something unknown, unexpected or	I wished to dis co ver a place where the bullies could not find me.	Synonym: find hidden.		Antonym: lose, hide disease	Noun	A problem with the body that results in sickness.	We lost hope when we were told the di sease was spreading.	Synonym: virus, sickness, infection

				Antonym: Cure
disguise	Noun	A way of hiding the true identity of someone or something.	Her dis guise was so clever that we never recognised her.	Synonym: Mask Antonym: Revelation
				,
	Verb	To hide the true identity of something.	Thy managed to get inside the prison by dis guis ing themselves	Synonym: Conceal as guards.	Antonym: Reveal dispose	Verb	To get rid of something.	She instructed us to dis pose of the rubbish immediately.	Synonym: discard
			, and the second	Antonym: Keep
		To make someone likely to act a certain way.	The gift will dispose him to be kind to us.
distance	Noun	A measurement of space between two points.	We could see her red house far off in the dis tance.	Synonym: space
		The difference between two things.	There is a great distance between being brave and being without fear.
		A lack of love or friendship between two people.	There is a growing distance between the two brothers.
distraction	Noun	Something which catches attention and directs it elsewhere.	The explosion caused a distraction that allowed her to escape.	Synonym: Diversion Antonym: enthrallment Something which takes your attention away from what needs to be done.	The baby's crying was a constant dis trac tion.

distraught	Adjective	To be distracted or irrational as a result of being very upset	He was dis traught after the death of his mother.	Synonym: Upset, devastated Antonym: Calm, collected division	Noun	The separation of one thing into two or more things that can then be separated from each other.	The di vis ion of the cake was equal so that none of the children would complain.	Synonym: separation Antonym: addition, fusion donga	Noun	A hole in the ground caused by water.	We almost fell into the don ga.	Synonym: hole doubt	Noun	A feeling of uncertainty caused by a lack of trust or lack of faith.	I doubt we will be able to reach home before dark as he promised.	Synonym: uncertainty Antonym: certainty drawer	Noun	A storage space in a cupboard or cabinet made with a handle that can be used for pulling it open.	Her draw ers were very untidy.
drilling	Verb	The act of making a deep hole in a hard substance with the use of a machine.	The noise of the drill ing made sleep impossible.
driving	Verb	The act of controlling a car.	My mother was dri ving very fast when she met up in an accident.	Synonym: Steering duiker	Noun	A small African antelope found in wooded areas.	She moves as gracefully as a dui ker.
earned	Verb	To get something for work that you do.	She earned her living as a policeman.	Synonym: deserved Antonym: undeserved earthquake	Noun	An event in nature that causes the ground to shake.	They lost their house in the earth quake.
easily	Adverb	To do something with little or no effort.	She completed her homework easily.	Synonym: effortlessly eastern	Adjective	Found in the direction of the east.	The sun always rises in the east.

eclipse	Noun	An event in nature when the earth passes between the moon and the sun so that the sun or moon is partially covered.	During the e clipse , we felt as if the day had suddenly turned into the night.
ecosystem	Noun	The relationship between the physical environment and all the plants and living creatures within it.	Earthworms play an important role in the e cosystem because they improve soil.	Synonym: environment edition	Noun	A book, newspaper or magazine that is part of a series.	Today's e di tion of the newspaper had an article on the environment.	Synonym: copy, version effect	Noun	The result of a cause.	The ef fect of her rudeness was that he never visited again.	Synonym: result Antonym: Cause egotistical	Adjective	To be self-centred or vain.	He is so ego tis tical that he thinks everyone wants to be like him.	Synonym: proud, vain, arrogant Antonym: humble eighteen	Noun Adjective	The number between seventeen and nineteen.	The number eight een was printed across his shirt. She turned eight een years old today.	Autonym. namote eland	Noun	A large antelope found in Africa.	We were ex ci ted to see the eland in the game reserve.
elastic	Noun	A rubber material that can stretch.	She used e las tic to keep all the papers together.
elbow	Noun	The joint in the body where the upper and lower arm connects.	He kept hitting me with his el bow. electric	Adjective	Having to do with electricity.	We prefer e le ctric heaters to using gas.

elegant	Adjective	Stylishly beautiful.	He looked very el egant at his matric dance.	Synonym: Stylish, beautiful, tasteful Antonym: Tasteless, plain
elephant	Noun	A large mammal found in Africa and Asia.	The ears of the African el ephant are larger than the ears of the Indian elephant.
eleven	Noun Adjective	The number between ten and twelve.	Eleven is his lucky number. There are eleven girls taking part in the race.
embark	Verb	To set out to do something.	We will em bark on our journey tomorrow.	Synonym: begin Antonym: return, finish empire	Noun	A group of countries that are controlled by the government or leader of one country A group of companies owned by one person or	Many territories of the British em pire only became independent in the 1960s. She has turned her mother's business into a multi-million rand empire.
		company.	empire.
employed	Verb	To work for someone in exchange for money.	He was em ployed by the company for twenty years.	Antonym: Unemployed
		To be used.	He employed force against them to make them stop arguing. emulsify	Verb	When two liquids of different thickness combine to form a smooth mixture.	My mistake was in not allowing the mixture to e mul sify before I added the third ingredient.

enact	Verb	To act in a play.	For drama class, we en act ed a scene from Macbeth .	Synonym: perform
		To put a law into effect.	There were many laws against non-white people owning land enacted under the apartheid government. enclosed	Adjective	To be surrounded by something.	They were en closed from the outside world by the high walls of the school.	Synonym: concealed, covered Antonym: Open endure	Verb	To experience something with pain or difficulty.	We were forced to en dure being separated from our mother.	Synonym: suffer Antonym: enjoy engineer	Noun	A person who is qualified to design and build engines, bridges, roads etc.	She had worked as an en gineer and knew how machines worked.
engrave	Verb	To carve or cut something into a hard substance.	She asked the jeweller to en grave her mother's name on the bracelet.	Synonym: cut, carve enjoyment	Noun	To experience something with pleasure.	My en joy ment of the party was doubled when my sister arrived.
enlarge	Verb	To make something bigger.	We were forced to en large the hall to make room for more guests.	Synonym: Widen, broaden Antonym: Contract, reduce, shrink entering	Verb	To go into a place.	We saw her just as she was entering the hall.	Antonym: Exit entitle	Verb	To give someone the right to something.	Your sports skills do not en ti tle you to bully your classmates.	Synonym:deserve episode	Noun	A time in someone's life.	It was a very difficult ep isode of her life.	Synonym: Stage

		An event or situation in a novel or a film.	That is my favourite ep isode in the book.
		One of the parts of a television series.	Last night's ep isode was very funny.
erosion	Noun	The process of wearing away or being slowly destroyed.	Repeated failures caused the e ro sion of his cheerful attitude.	Synonym: diminishing, fading
			The heavy rainfall has caused an erosion of the soil.	Antonym: swell, grow establish	Verb	To settle something officially.	We must es ta blish the rules by which we all must live by.	Synonym: settle 7.7	A		Antonym: Remove estimation	Noun	A guess at the value or measure of something.	In my es timation, he was a very good-hearted boy.	Synonym: guess evergreen	Adjective	A kind of tree or bush that remains green throughout all four seasons.	The garden has many ev ergreen trees and is always very shady.
evident	Adjective	To be proven or obvious.	It is ev ident from the report that things got out of hand.	Synonym: obvious Antonym: unclear examine	Verb	To study something closely.	In order to find out what is making him sick, he must be examined.	Synonym: study, scrutinise