1. INTRODUCTION

The 18 Curriculum and Assessment Policy Statement subjects which contain a practical component all include a practical assessment task (PAT). These subjects are:

- AGRICULTURE: Agricultural Management Practices, Agricultural Technology
- ARTS: Dance Studies, Design, Dramatic Arts, Music, Visual Arts
- SCIENCES: Computer Applications Technology, Information Technology, Technical Sciences; Technical Mathematics
- SERVICES: Consumer Studies, Hospitality Studies, Tourism
- TECHNOLOGY: Civil Technology, Electrical Technology, Mechanical Technology and Engineering Graphics and Design

A practical assessment task (PAT) mark is a compulsory component of the final promotion mark for all candidates offering subjects that have a practical component and counts 25% (100 marks) of the end-of-year examination mark. The PAT is implemented across the first three terms of the school year. This is broken down into different phases or a series of smaller activities that make-up the PAT. The PAT allows for learners to be assessed on a regular basis during the school year and it also allows for the assessment of skills that cannot be assessed in a written format, e.g. test or examination. It is therefore important that schools ensure that all learners complete the practical assessment tasks within the stipulated period to ensure that learners are resulted at the end of the school year. The planning and execution of the PAT differs from subject to subject.

2. TEACHER GUIDELINES

2.1 COVID-19: IMPLICATIONS AND AMENDMENTS TO THE PATS

If there is still threat of contracting Covid-19 learners must perform three individual dramatic items – one for each PAT.

Assessment must be administered at school. The candidate, the teacher and a person who takes a video of each candidate's PAT performance (not necessarily a professional videographer) are the only three individuals that may be in the classroom when learners are assessed.

Learners may perform without masks but must maintain a strict physical distance of 1,5 metres away from the videographer and the teacher. The room must be well ventilated at all times. Keep doors and windows open.

2.2 GENERAL

The Annual Programme of Assessment for the subject Dramatic Arts stipulates THREE PATs should be completed for the school-based assessment (SBA) component. This means ONE PAT per term for terms 1, 2 and 3. Ensure that you, as the teacher, have a clear understanding of all four Broad Topics and their related Topics when you prepare, set, implement and mark the PATs. All three PATs contain two sections:

SECTION 1: WRITTEN SECTION

The Written Section consists of an Assignment, an Essay and a Research task. The learners are required to demonstrate cognitive and conceptual understanding of the fundamental concepts of the CAPS Broad Topics and Topics, on which the Written Section is based, as well as planning, reflection and record-keeping skills. The Essay, Research and Assignment tasks may be done in any order in any of the three terms, and according to a school's specific planning. The Written Section serves to prepare learners theoretically for the Performance Sections of the PATs.

SECTION 2: PERFORMANCE SECTION

The focus of the Performance Section is to develop the practical skills and techniques prescribed in the CAPS Broad Topics and Topics incrementally and cyclically. Learners should demonstrate applied competence in the form of dramatic items such as a poem, monologue, prose, scene/extract from a published play, physical theatre, film, design, directing, stage management. A variation in Dramatic Form, Style, Genre and Dramatic Movement needs to be demonstrated – as prescribed for the end-of-year examination.

2.3 AIMS

Both the Written and the Performance Sections aim to:

- Most importantly ensure thorough TEACHING and deep/complex LEARNING has taken place. Guard against an assessment-driven approach. Plan your lesson plans to ensure enough time is spent on you, the teacher, TEACHING and the learner LEARNING. The formal assessment of the PATs is merely the end point of a long process based on teaching and active learning. NOTE: Deep learning is an approach and an attitude to learning, where the learner uses higher-order cognitive skills such as the ability to analyse, synthesize, solve problems, and thinks meta-cognitively in order to construct long-term understanding. It involves the critical analysis of new ideas and linking them to already known concepts and principles so that this understanding can be used for problem solving in new, unfamiliar contexts. Deep learning entails a sustained, substantial and positive influence on the way students act, think or feel. Deep learning promotes understanding and application for life.
- Guide learners through an academic, theoretical, conceptual, technical and practical skills process to enable them to integrate theory and practice in a meaningful manner.
- Deepen and consolidate the learners' understanding and learning of the classroom teaching.

- Provide the opportunity to build a varied theoretical and practical repertoire in terms of process and product.
- Integrate theory and performance concepts, skills, knowledge and content.
- Prepare the learners for the complex cognitive and abstract theoretical and performance demands of the mid-year, trial and end-of-year examinations:
 - Paper 1: Written Examinations
 - Paper 2: Performance Examinations: Theme/Audition or Technical Programme

2.4 SOME IDEAS AND APPROACHES

Theoretical, academic, technical skills:

- The subject Dramatic Arts requires a minimum of three years of rigorous, continuous teaching, learning, development and maturation of conceptual and practical skills and techniques. The development of voice modulation techniques, for example, should occur over the three-year period and not only in Grade 12. (Ensure every period or moment of teaching is focused.)
- The transfer of knowledge, acquisition of skills and change in attitudes and values are embedded in an ongoing deep process approach. It is within the process that creative thinking, creativity, imagination, visualisation, problem-solving and critical thinking are discovered, explored, conceptualised, implemented, developed and applied. These aspects cannot be attained through individual methodologies or product creation.
- Consciously develop learners' content knowledge as well as the academic and technical rigour of the subject. At the end of Grade 12 learners should demonstrate applied competence of the Curriculum Assessment Policy Statement from Grade 10 to 11 to 12. Ensure that the integrity of technical skills, style, genres, principles etc. of the dramatic forms are maintained and demonstrated at all times. (E.g. an Elizabethan poem may be interpreted creatively, but the form and style of the iambic rhythm, the phrasing, the heightened poetry, the vocal and physical delivery, etc. of the Elizabethan genre must be mastered and demonstrated.)

Process, meaning, creative voice and product:

- Very few learners can complete a brief on their own. You, as the teacher, must guide and facilitate the creative process from inception to completion.
- Be open-minded about divergent ideas, creative inferences, innovation and offered solutions.
- Remember, you must guide the aesthetic qualities and skills of the tasks.
- It is the task of the teacher to enable the learner to find his/her own creative voice.
- Try to lead the learners to find individual and innovative approaches/solutions.
- Guide them to develop ideas by working from first-hand observation, e.g. attending and discussing plays, critiquing TV programmes and films.
- Guide learners to eliminate source material that lacks aesthetic appeal. Dramatic forms should be selected from a credible published source or recognised oral tradition rooted in indigenous knowledge systems. Caution: ensure all dramatic items are sourced from published play texts, novels etc. Be careful when the internet is used to source items. Ensure they are of a high quality and published on a reputable site.

Learners' styles and creativity:

- Learners should be confident and calculated risk takers, trying out new ideas and processes without fear of failure.
- It is important that confidence is encouraged and nurtured to ensure learners feel comfortable about taking risks and learning from their mistakes.
- Create high-risk, low-threat/safe environment.
- As far as possible know your learners in order to develop their particular strengths. Some will be careful planners, while others work more intuitively. Some will exhibit their work process outwardly; others work quietly, slowly and in private. Appreciate, nurture and, most of all, respect all work styles.
- Extrovert learners may readily offer a solution to another learner's mistakes. Encourage the extrovert to rather focus on their own process and encourage the introverted learner to offer and communicate their own solution. Extroverts are not necessarily leaders. Often the introverted learner is more conscious of detail, process and meaning. Encouraging these learners' voices and opinions may enrich discussions.

- Creative activity may proceed from a number of different levels: from the lower end, such as producing a written framework for a Theme Programme; or the upper level, developing an entirely fresh and individualised process and/or outcome. Both are valid.
- There are many ways of creating. Be flexible enough to allow learners to find and use their unique ways. One expects a stronger individual interpretation and style in Grade 12 learners. Resources or the lack thereof does not determine the level of creativity but rather what the learner does with the resources available. The focus is on innovation and the ability to re-imagine, re-frame or re-present a process or product from their unique view of the world.

Assessment, feedback, listening and communication skills:

- Conduct informal assessment continuously. Discuss the progress of learners' work with them individually. Guide learners to find their own solutions, rather than imposing your ideas on them.
- Have regular 'critique sessions' during which the teacher facilitates learners to talk and discuss their own and their classmates' processes/work in an informed and constructive way. Base this discussion on the content in the CAPS.
- Be skilled at listening. Dramatic Arts is about effective and skilled communication. Practice and promote a culture of 'listening to understand' and not only 'listening to dispute' or 'disagree'. Be careful not to enforce a simplistic understanding of 'listening' to ensure learners do not 'talk back' or express their points of view or the construct from which they have worked. You may even have to change your well thought-out position based on knowledge you have as a teacher. There is not only one way of doing things, but multiple ways.
- It is important to view and discuss the body of work by learners continuously throughout the year. It helps to identify their strengths and improvement points. Teach learners to record their experiences and feelings in a reflective manner in their individual process journals. Apply the principle of: 'what is not documented did not happen'. This will help to develop critical and creative thinking and will make the selection and ordering of ideas more transparent and conscious.
- Beware of damaging criticism. It is advisable to start with the positive and then move to areas that can be improved. Enter into dialogue with a learner, e.g. 'I think it will be more effective if you change this ... What do you think?' This makes them feel part of the process and makes them think about their work. Use coaching and de-briefing skills. Create a space in which learners may disagree with you.
- Guide learners to be effective, independent, critical, creative and reflective thinkers. Do not underestimate learners; challenge them, as they often rise to the occasion. Use a range of questions that extend and deepen learners' ability to re-consider their creative choices. This should lead them to ask: 'If this is how it is now, how else can it be?'

Reflection:

- As a starting point; reflection is best done against the agreed upon rubric criteria. Reflective practices include reflection before, during and after a task. Teachers may also, as a learning tool, use the rubric criteria as questions to debrief and reflect on the evidence produced by the learner. At the end of each PAT (Written and Performance Sections) there should be reflection/feedback on the work presented. Teachers need to share comments on the strengths and the weaknesses. This will provide learning and improvement points for the learner to implement for continuous development and mastery.
- This may be either written or verbal feedback and it could take the form of: self-reflection, class/teacher reflection and marking, peer reflection, open critique session guided by the TEACHER as well as the learner.

2.5 HOW TO ADMINISTER THE PATs

Teachers must:

- Ensure all resources, required to do the PATs, are available. See the DBE Catalogue for Learning and Teaching Support Materials (LTSM).
- Allocate sufficient time on the timetable for learners to complete the PATs (select contact time during and/or after school).
- Ensure you TEACH every CAPS Topics concept/skill and knowledge component thoroughly. Facilitate a deep LEARNING process for each learner before the actual assessment of the PATs is administered.
- Use the Guidelines for Standardisation for an Assessment, Essay and Research to ensure the correct format, length, content etc. is applied across the nine provinces for the Assignment, Essay and Research.
- Monitor the progress of the PATs during the rehearsal process.
- Conduct informal continuous assessment.
- Complete formal assessment; using the rubrics provided in this document.
- Complete the Excel mark sheets/spread sheets provided by the province.
- Follow school policy and deadlines regarding submission of marks.
- File the Lesson Plans as well as the Assessment Tasks' briefs and instructions as well as the Assessment Tools (rubrics, marking guidelines, checklists) for the PATs, based on the CAPS topics, in the file called: TEACHER FILE: LESSON PLANNING AND ASSESSMENT TASKS PLANNING.
- This file must be available for cluster, provincial and national moderation.
- Record, on an ordinary cellphone, the Performance Sections of learners' PATs and download onto a DVD. This DVD must be available for moderation.
- File the learners' completed assessment evidence of both the Performance Sections (DVDs) and the Written Sections of the PATs in the file called: LEARNER FILE: ASSESSMENT EVIDENCE.
- This file must be available for cluster, provincial and national moderation.
- All learners' Written Section' and 'Performance Section' evidence should be available at all times and remains the property of the Department of Education until the final results are released. Keep these written pieces and DVD-saved performances locked up in your classroom. This is a school responsibility..

2.6 HOW TO MARK/ASSESS THE PATs

Teachers should ensure that the assessment/markings of PATs:

- Measures the achievement of the CAPS Broad Topics and Topics content: Concepts/Skills/ Knowledge as well as the theoretical and performance components of each topic.
- Determines whether the Guidelines for Standardisation of the Written Sections were followed.
- Uses the relevant rubrics for the:
 - Theory Section: rubrics for the assignment, essay and research
 - Performance Section: rubrics for a poem, monologue, prose, movement and extract as well as the rubrics for the design, directing, film and stage management
- Measures the learners' evidence and performance against the criteria and level descriptors of the rubrics.
- Adheres to the following principles of:
 - Fairness:
An assessment should allow for learners of all genders (LBTQ plus) and all backgrounds to do equally well and for all to have an equal opportunity to demonstrate the skills and knowledge being assessed. Fairness is jeopardised if bias exists in the task or in the marker. For a task to be fair, its content, context and performance expectations should: reflect knowledge, skills and experiences that are equally familiar and appropriate to all learners. This should include access to research resources.
 - Reliability:
An assessment is considered reliable when the same results occur regardless of when the assessment occurs or who does the marking.

- Validity:
An indication of how well an assessment actually measures what it is supposed to measure. A valid task should:
 - Reflect actual knowledge or performance, not test-taking skills and memorised facts
 - Engage and motivate students to perform to the best of their ability
 - Be consistent with current educational theory and practice
 - Be rigorous in lesson plan design and teaching. This includes the design of detailed instructions, activities and exercises. This promotes scaffolding of thinking, planning for thinking, assessing thinking about content, recognising the level of thinking students demonstrate.

Be relevant in lesson plan design and teaching. This enhances the learners' ability to evaluate, justify, infer, predict, conclude, revise, recommend, argue, prioritise, formulate, etc. A relevant task is when learners recognise the connection between classroom knowledge and situations outside the classroom.

2.7 MODERATION OF PATs

2.7.1 The moderation of the PATs, although an important process, should be effected within the context of the whole process of planning, teaching, learning, assessment and moderation. The amount of time spent on moderating learner evidence should not take away from the important moderation of teaching and learning.

2.7.2 It is important to be clear that the purpose of moderation is to focus on the whether the CAPS Topics (skills, knowledge and content) have been TAUGHT and LEARNED.

2.7.3 Moderation is a shared understanding of several steps and processes. Familiarise yourself with the meaning, purpose and scope of the following steps/processes:

Step 1: Verification

This is a quick and short first step in the moderation process. A checklist is used to tick off which items of evidence, as required by policy, have been submitted for moderation.

Step 2: Moderation

A template that lends itself to analyse the spread and scaffolding of Blooms' Taxonomy's six cognitive levels and four thinking processes, as applied to the CAPS Topics, can be used. Officials must ensure moderation includes the following:

- Lesson Plans: Are the lesson plan activities based on the content of the CAPS Topics?
- Assessment Task Plans: Are the assessment task activities/briefs/instructions based on the CAPS Topics and the respective lesson plan?
- Learner Assessment Evidence: Is the learner's assessment evidence based on the CAPS + the respective lesson plan + the respective assessment task?

2.7.4 Standard Setting

Internal standardisation provides a system for checking the quality of assessment to make sure that it is:

- Valid – relevant to the standards for which competence/attainment is claimed
- Authentic – produced by the learners
- Current – sufficiently recent for assessors to be confident that the learner still has the same level of skills or knowledge
- Reliable – genuinely representative of the learner's knowledge and skills
- Sufficient – meets all the requirements of the standards in full
- This is the process in which it is determined if the minimum performance/achievement levels, required for each grade/topic, has been accomplished. The achievement levels are determined by the:
 - Topic's skills, knowledge, content and concepts
 - 6 cognitive levels
 - 4 thinking processes
 - 3 levels of difficulty

Evidence of this will be found in the instructions, activities, exercises, briefs, etc. of the lesson plans, assessment task plans and learner assessment evidence which officials must moderate. It must be clear what learners should know and be able to do when they have reached each level/topic.

2.7.5 Quality Assurance

Officials must ensure the processes of the following are followed and available as evidence:

Teacher training: all Dramatic Arts teachers must have official higher education training to offer the subject: minimum 3-year degree in Drama, PGCE as well as CAPS training.

Teacher plans: above 1, 2 and 3 items of evidence must be of value and be fair, valid and reliable. Clear teaching, learning and assessment of topics (skills, content, knowledge and concepts) must be contained in each activity, exercise, instruction, brief, etc. These must be scaffolded from lower to middle to higher-order in terms of Blooms' Taxonomy.

2.7.6 Standardisation

Standardisation is a process used the world over to mitigate the effect of factors other than the learners' knowledge and aptitude on the learners' performance. Officials must use the moderation evidence to assist teachers to understand, interpret and implement the CAPS Topics skills, knowledge, content and concepts

2.7.7 Moderation:

- Should take place each time a PAT is completed.
- Checks that assessment tasks and activities provide learners with fair and valid opportunities to meet the standards and expectations of the CAPS.
- Agrees on strengths in learners' performances and plans to improve skills and knowledge.
- Provides feedback on teacher judgments (setting and marking of PATs) to improve teaching.
- Raises standards and expectations and levels of consistency.
- Ensures learning is at the appropriate level and that learners develop skills for learning, life and work.
- Should be conducted internally at school level, by a peer teacher/HOD/principal before the cluster/provincial moderation.
- Should involve teachers in the moderation process to ensure professional development.
- Should ensure interrelated reliability in the awarding of marks.

3. LEARNER GUIDELINES

3.1 INSTRUCTIONS TO LEARNERS

Three PATs must be completed during the year, one per term. Each of the three PATs consists of a Written Section as well as a Performance Section. You must complete both and integrate the theoretical and practical concepts, skills and content at all times.

Select and prepare your three contrasting drama items for your end-of-year performance examination. NOTE: To select an item a month before your final examination is not a good idea, the reason being that emotional and physical integration takes time. You need months to grow into a poem, etc.

Writing and theoretical conceptualisations, as well as higher-order thinking skills, take practice. Use the three writing/theoretical sections to ensure you know how to write down your thoughts, learning and experiences in a form that will achieve the aims, structure and form of a written examination.

WRITTEN SECTIONS

The following information is standardised for each year's PATs. This is to ensure standardisation across the provinces as well as benchmarking the outcomes and criteria for a Grade 12 level.

The pointers below must be followed. Some examples of presentation modes are shared below. It is not practical to list all types of modes or formats. Aim for creative and unique presentations.

JOURNAL	ESSAY	RESEARCH
Learners: This PAT section may be in the form of a journal, collage, etc. Also explore innovative ways of keeping a journal, e.g. electronic journal and a blog. Make sure you know exactly what your teacher has briefed and instructed you to present. You should follow the following processes when you write a journal: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Collect 2. Analyse 3. Interpret 4. Reflect 5. Present information on your own personal practical skills development journey. 	Learners: Use the theoretical support material given to you by your teacher (textbook, classroom notes) to write the essay. Make sure you follow the guidelines and brief instructions set by your teacher. Use this PAT section to practise your essay-writing skills in preparation for the essays in the written examination. Ensure your essay follows the basic format of an essay: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Introduction 2. Body of knowledge 3. Conclusion 	Learners: Collect additional outside source material to do independent research to enrich your understanding of the research brief and instructions. Make sure that you look at as many different sources as possible. The internet is only one option and is not always reliable. At all times be ethical in your research. Research requires: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Use of a variety of sources 2. Comparing 3. Contrasting 4. Highlighting 5. Finding 6. Presenting

PERFORMANCE SECTIONS

Each of the three Performance Sections of the PATs should be used by you to select, prepare and present your dramatic items for your end-of-year final external performance examination:

- Theme Programme OR
- Audition Programme OR
- Technical Theatre Programme.

Once you have performed your dramatic item, keep on developing and improving it throughout the year.

Theme/Audition Programme: (Any THREE of the drama forms below)

Monologue, poem, extract, prose, dramatised prose, storytelling, choral verse, indigenous drama, satirical revue, physical theatre, movement, mime. These are examples only. You may use other examples, but it is essential that all alternative dramatic items adhere to the CAPS criteria and the subject Dramatic Arts. A song or dance may not be selected as a complete dramatic item. These items are assessed in Dance Studies and Music. Songs and dances, short and relevant to the theme of the theme-/audition programme, may be used as the prescribed links between the three selected dramatic items

NOTE: As per the CAPS: For both the theme/audition programmes relevant links must be created between each dramatic item. A continuous performance must be presented for the trial and final performance examinations at the end of the year. Candidates may not leave the stage/performance area after each item has been performed.

Technical Theatre Programme

- Design (scenery/properties/lighting/sound/costume/make-up)
- Directing
- Film
- Stage management

3.3 ASSESSMENT/MODERATION RUBRICS/TOOLS

WRITTEN SECTIONS:

An assessment tool/rubric is provided for the assignment, essay and research tasks. These are available in both the CAPS and this PAT document – annexures at the end of the document.

PERFORMANCE SECTIONS:

Select and analyse one dramatic item for each of the three PATs: Performance Section:

1. Individual theme/audition programme:
Select three contrasting dramatic items; contrasting in genre, movement and form.
 2. Technical theatre programme:
(Stage management, directing, film making, design, theatre making): Select either a one-person show or one dramatic item
- Genres and Movements:
Commedia dell Arte/Greek Theatre/South African Theatre/Realism in the Theatre/Elizabethan Theatre/Epic Theatre/Poor Theatre/Theatre of the Absurd/Postmodern Theatre
 - Dramatic Forms:
Poem/storytelling/monologue/prose/praise poem/dramatised prose/mime/physical theatre/movement/mime

Once you have prepared and presented your work on a dramatic item, keep on developing and improving it throughout the year

3.4 EXAMPLE: THREE CONTRASTING PAT DRAMATIC ITEMS SELECTED FOR AN INDIVIDUAL THEME PROGRAMME

TITLE: STOP ABUSING ANIMALS AND NATURE

PAT 1: DRAMATIC ITEM 1: AFRICAN STORYTELLING

GENRE: AFRICAN DRAMA FORMS

PUBLISHED: <https://www.travelbutlers.com/safari/wildlife-guide/folklore-cheetah.asp>

TITLE: WHY THE CHEETAH CRIES

One day, a hunter left his village to go and find food for his family. He passed a small clearing and noticed a young Impala who had strayed away from the main herd. While the hunter was working out the best way to catch the Impala, he noticed a mother Cheetah in the long grass near the Impala. Suddenly, the Cheetah leapt out of the grass and with great speed bore down and caught the Impala before it had a chance to run away.

The hunter marvelled at the Cheetah's hunting ability and wished that he could have a Cheetah to train to catch food for him. Then he noticed her three young cubs sitting nearby in the shade of a tree, watching their mother kill the Impala for their dinner.

'This could be the answer,' thought the hunter. 'Why don't I steal one of the cubs and take it back to the village with me, so that I can train it to hunt for me instead.'

Quick as a flash, the hunter ran over to the cubs, and picked up the nearest one. 'Why not take all three,' he then thought. 'That way, I'll be able to catch three times as much food for my family.' The hunter scooped all three cubs into his bag and ran off.

The mother Cheetah dragged her kill back to where she had left her cubs and was distraught to see that they had gone. She cried and cried for hours, and the tears made a dark stain down her cheeks.

An old man passed by and asked what was wrong. When he heard that the cubs were missing, he realised that the three cubs that had been brought into his village that morning by the hunter must belong to the mother Cheetah. He promised to return the cubs to her immediately and went to the village. The old man scolded the hunter for not only stealing the cubs, but for dishonouring the tribe's hunting traditions of using their own abilities and skills.

When the cubs were returned to their mother, she was very grateful, but the hours of crying meant that her face was permanently stained with the dark stripes.

PAT 2: DRAMATIC ITEM 2: MONOLOGUE

GENRE: REALISM

PUBLISHED: This monologue is reprinted from The Moscow Arts Theatre Series of Plays. Ed. Oliver M Saylor. New York: Brentanos, 1922.

TITLE: A monologue from the play UNCLE VANYA by Anton Chekhov

ASTROFF: You can burn peat in your stoves and build your barns of stone. Oh, I don't object, of course, to cutting wood when you have to, but why destroy the forests? The woods of Russia are trembling under the blows of the axe. Millions of trees have perished. The homes of the wild animals and the birds have been laid desolate; the rivers are shrinking, and many beautiful landscapes are gone forever. And why? Because men are too lazy and short-sighted to stoop and pick their fuel from the ground. Am I not right? Who but a senseless barbarian could burn so much beauty in his stove and destroy what he cannot create himself? Man has reason and creative energy so that he may increase his possessions. Until now, though, he has not created but destroyed. The forests are disappearing, the rivers are drying up, the game is being exterminated, the climate is spoiled and the earth becomes poorer and uglier every day. I read irony in your eye; you do not take seriously what I am saying; and -- and -- perhaps I am talking nonsense. But when I cross peasant-forests which I have saved from the axe, or hear the rustling of the young trees which I have set out with my own hands, I feel as if I had had some small share in improving the climate, and that if mankind is happy a thousand years from now I shall have been partly responsible in my small way for their happiness. When I plant a young birch tree and see it budding and swaying in the wind, my heart swells with pride and I -- however -- I must be off. Probably it is all nonsense, anyhow. Goodbye.

PAT 3: DRAMATIC ITEM 3: POEMGENRE: REALISMPUBLISHED: https://www.poetrysoup.com/poem/paradise_warns_1360422TITLE: 'PARADISE WARNS'

Creation perfectly wrought designed by God for mankind precious gift to tend with responsible stewardship...
 such was magnificent in the beginning a paradise of wonders.

Paradise
 indeed, yet corrupted
 as inhabitants
 keep on maligning
 her elegance of grace-filled beauty --- now ... Mother Earth grievously languishes.

Mother Earth
 oh, verily afflicted with men's exploits
 while technology soars toward progress' crest leaving her virgin forests ravaged against original stature:
 Nature at its best.

Nature
 sighing in desperate disgust at civilization's arrogance along mocking skeptical mirth never stops to give stern warning tolerating not abuse to planet, once verily functional.

Planet
 offering life
 brings earnest admonition inflicting guilt...to heed, hopeful we do so, lest in despair
 wail for wasted creation.

3.5 THEME/AUDITION PROGRAMME

COVID CONTEXT: INDIVIDUAL ADAPTED PROGRAMME. NO DIALOGUE OR SCENE.
NOTE: ONLY teachers who have FORMAL training, a qualification or experience in drama, voice, acting and theatre performance may teach this option.
NOTE: The following are ONLY examples, PAT 1 as a poem, PAT 2 as a monologue, etc. Teachers and learners may decide on any type of dramatic item for any of the PATs, e.g. Storytelling for PAT 1, Praise Poem for PAT 2, etc.
PAT 1	PAT 2	PAT 3

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preparation • Understanding poem • Expression of meaning • Vocal expressiveness • Vocal clarity • Physical work • Emotional connection • Creation of appropriate mood • Use of poetic devices • Impact of poem 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preparation • Impact of monologue • Understanding of monologue • Vocal characterisation • Vocal clarity • Physical characterisation • Stage sense use of space • Emotional connection • Playing of subtext • Interpretation of character • Relationship to listener • Believability • Structure of monologue • Rhythms/Shape of monologue • Creation of appropriate genre/style 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Practical/Performance Skills • Understand and use a range of movements, choreographic styles and processes. Show competence and confidence in movement performance so that ideas are understood. • Experimentation (Development and realisation of ideas) • Use a variety of stimuli, accompaniments and movement styles to create sequences. Expand and develop an idea from the original stimulus and to try out ideas and select and reject them with reason and confidence in order to complete a task. • Critical Awareness • Make analytical comments which helps improve the structure and performance of own and others' work. • The ability to compare and contrast the work of different movement styles. Understand the difference between objective judgments and personal preference when creating, using and watching movement forms. • Personal and Social Skills • Work co-operatively as a member of a group, sharing ideas so that the task is completed. Work at developing an idea and organising work independently. Sustain focus and effort through all stages and kinds of work
The three dramatic items/PATs above may be used for the end-of-year individual adapted theme programme. However, note that to become a theme/audition programme, two links need to be created and rehearsed to create a continuous running performance.

3.6 FILM MAKING

NOTE: Only teachers who have formal training, a qualification or experience in film making may teach this option.

PRODUCTION PHASES, OUTCOMES AND CHECKLIST

PRE-PRODUCTION	PRODUCTION	POST PRODUCTION
The pre-production phase is the planning process of every task before production begins. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Select a script (dramatic item) • Analyse the script • Break down the script into scenes • Brainstorm ideas • Create the final film script • Create and decide on the concept and your vision as a filmmaker • Create the story board • Cast the actors • Decide on and create the designs for the film (props/costume/set/ lighting, etc.) • Select props • Select costume • Select locations • Finalise the crew • Finalise lighting ideas • Finalise camera angles, movements and shots • Create a shooting schedule • Obtain editing software app or programme • Understand the working of cellphone to record footage • Record and reflect on all tasks above in your film-making journal 	The production phase begins with the recording of the footage. This process will capture all the scenes and information from the production process. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Production meeting (script analysis, scene breakdown, storyboard, shots, schedules) • Finalise camera angles, movements and shots • Create a shot list • Create shooting schedule • Prepare the location • Set up the set • Set up the shots • Rehearse the scene • Shoot the scenes • Log footage • Record and reflect on all above tasks in your film-making journal 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review the footage • Create a paper edit • Familiarise yourself with the operations of the editing programme • Import picture and sound to editing software on the computer • Keep an editing log of edits/cuts, etc. • Edit 1st rough draft footage • Edit sound/music/music/dialogue • Export for viewing • Edit 2nd draft • Complete title sequence • Complete credit list • Edit final draft • Lock picture • Output project to final format • Make copies • Record and reflect on all above tasks in your film-making journal

The three production phases above, as achieved through the completion of the three PAT as well as the tasks listed above, places the film-making technical programme on a similar level as the individual adapted theme programme and the individual audition programme may be used. A further standardisation is to select a dramatic item as the 'film script', e.g. a published poem or a prose or monologue or dialogue (scene). The final short film may not exceed two minutes.

NOTE: As with the CAPS Topics, this PAT guideline for design does not provide the process, pedagogy or methodology of teaching, learning and assessing these three PATs. This is each individual teacher training and responsibility must be applied and demonstrated. It is therefore essential that only teachers, who have FORMAL experience, competency or a qualification in these fields, offer this option to learners.

3.8 STAGE MANAGEMENT

NOTE: Only teachers who have formal training, a qualification or experience in film making may teach this option.

NOTE: Candidates must select a dramatic item/short one-act play that makes provision for the film maker to use props, lighting, sound, costume etc.

PAT 1, 2 and 3 and ACCOMPANYING OUTCOMES and CHECKLISTS

PAT 1	PAT 2	PAT 3
The first PAT requires the candidate to complete the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide a job description of a stage manager • Select a published five-minute one-person show script. Ensure the play is of a high quality. If sourced from the internet ensure the site is reputable. • Do a scene breakdown of the script • Paste the script in your stage management prompt book. Use the correct conventions, e.g. stage areas must be notated as USR for Up Stage Right, etc. • Analyse the script and present your findings in the form of a written journal for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Research on the period, genre. Analysis of the given circumstances, characters, stage space and social, political, religious, economic, artistic, historical and theatrical contexts • Identify and list, per scene, the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Set ○ Furniture ○ Props • Select and motivate the most appropriate stage performance space for the staging of the one person show • Visualise the set: placement of furniture, windows, doors, stairs, etc. • Draw a floor plan according to metres converted to centimetres and use staging terminology • Map out the props table per scene, and indicate where you will place the props • Record and reflect on all above tasks in your stage management prompt/notebook 	The second PAT requires the candidate to complete the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Visualise the character's movements and block them in relation to movement in the space (stage areas) and the use of furniture and set • From page one of the script, draw a floor plan of the performance space on all the left open spaces, e.g. proscenium stage: • Record all movements noted with the use of appropriate abbreviations and reference to furniture and décor. • Record and reflect on all above tasks in your stage management prompt/notebook 	The third PAT requires the candidate to finalise the following stage management processes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Imagine where there may be lighting and sound cues and mark these in the script • Indicate sound cues, speaker selection and sound level, with appropriate anticipation markers. The sound level is appropriate to for the performance space • Indicated all LX cues and appropriate anticipation markings. Notate the light area and light intensity appropriate to the performance space as well as timing • Provide a complete cast list for each scene with full contact details via different mediums of communication • Create a pre-show call schedule • Provide an appropriate protocol for opening and closing procedures with calls and timing as well as the impulses required • Compile a pre-show checklist • Record and reflect on all above tasks in your stage management prompt/notebook • The candidate arrives for the interview, submits a complete stage manager prompt script and provides insightful, well-motivated and thoughtful answers to questions posed by the examination panel

Each individual teacher's training and responsibility must be applied and demonstrated. It is therefore essential that only teachers, who have FORMAL experience, competency or a qualification in these fields, offer this option to learners.

3.9 ABSENCE OR NON-SUBMISSION OF TASKS

Absence or non-submission of PATs will result in an INCOMPLETE mark. Only if a valid medical certificate is presented the day the learner returns to school, can another deadline for handing in or performing the PAT be decided on by both the teacher and the learner. No learner may be awarded zero for the PAT. The learner should be offered an opportunity to re-attempt and resubmit.

3.10 REQUIREMENTS FOR PRESENTATION

See the list of Minimum Resources; Facilities, Equipment, LTSM, Timetabling, etc. that should be in place before the PATs are taught, implemented and assessed. These resources should be available to the teacher and the learners to complete the three PATs.

The teacher should draw up a lesson plan for ALL of the topics being covered by a specific PAT. In addition, a clear assessment brief with detailed Instructions should be facilitated with the learners.

3.11 TIMEFRAMESTeachers:

Teach, administer, assess and record and report on one PAT per term 1, 2 and 3.
Communicate in writing, exact, non-negotiable dates for handing in or performing the PATs.

Learners:

Ensure you follow the assessment brief and instructions. Hand in, or perform your PAT on time to ensure you achieve a mark.

3.12 DECLARATION OF AUTHENTICITY

Practical tasks are not limited to a performance. The PAT tasks (1, 3, and 5) are a preparation for your mid-year, trial and end-of-year written and performance exams. Integrate the theory aspect of the PAT with the practical aspect.

Engage in planning, preparation, research, skills building and reflection before you hand in your essay, research task or assignment.

Rehearse your performance items until you can perform fluently and with confidence.

Learners will be required to answer practical-based questions in their final written paper, using a theoretical framework in their final written paper.

DECLARATION OF AUTHENTICITY
This declaration must be completed and signed by the learner and countersigned by the teacher and covers all evidence submitted.

4. RESOURCES

The subject Dramatic Arts, like other subjects, requires specific resources for effective teaching, learning, presentations and performances to be achieved. Officials from the Department of Basic Education have a responsibility to ensure that there is an informed and committed approach and that the minimum requirements are in place to ensure integrity in the teaching and learning of the subject.

It is important to note that these resources need not be expensive or elaborate. It is equally important that if a school is not able to provide these subject-specific resources, the subject should preferably not be offered. Learners will be disadvantaged if resources such as the DBE-screened textbook, the prescribed play texts, chairs, a reasonably functional space/room for practical work are not available. (The DBE, through the annual norms and standards, makes provision for minimum resources to be purchased for all the subjects offered by a school. The school management committee or the equivalent of this body is tasked to ensure every subject's needs are met.) In November/December of the previous year teachers should ensure that the following basic resources are in evidence in the Dramatic Arts classroom for a functional start to the new year.

4.1 HUMAN RESOURCES

A teacher with a drama qualification should teach and assess the CAPS and its respective annual programme of assessment which includes the three PATs. A suitably qualified teacher for this subject could have the following background:

- Bachelor of Arts (Drama major)
- Bachelor of Education (Drama major)
- Licentiate in Drama Teaching, Trinity College
- Diploma from LAMDA
- Or any other officially accredited, 360-credit qualification in Drama
- In addition to all of the above, a one-year post graduate certificate in teaching or diploma in training.

Note the following is NOT an appropriate or sufficient qualification to teach Dramatic Arts:

- The creative arts teacher
- An actor/actress
- A drama enthusiast
- The English language teacher
- The dance teacher

4.2 LTSM: EQUIPMENT AND FACILITIES

Learners have to experiment with the use of space, levels, entrances and exits. The following basic items will provide opportunity to fill the empty space creatively with set pieces etc.:

- A double-volume classroom, or an open space
- 4 x wooden blocks/cubes/plastic crates/chairs or an alternative affordable equivalent
- 4 x flat screens/hanging cloths/cardboard boxes or an affordable alternative
- 4 x stage steps or an alternative affordable alternative
- Tables and chairs serve as décor pieces
- The following are not prerequisites, but would be advantageous: a stage, lighting and sound facilities

4.3 LTSM: REFERENCE

- 1 x DBE-screened textbook per learner
- 1 x DBE-screened textbook per Dramatic Arts teacher
- 3 x play texts, 1 for each of the selected genres; 3 x per learner
Photo copies of any of the above are illegal and can subject the school to lawsuits by publishers, textbook writers and playwrights
- 1 x workbook per learner
- 1 x file/box for the teacher to safe keep planning and administration for moderation
- 1 x file/box for the teacher to safe keep learner assessment evidence for moderation
- 1 x black T-shirt/comfortable top + black long pants + shoes for learners' practical work
- Field trips: 1 x per term to a professional play/drama
- The following is not a prerequisite, but would be beneficial: A DVD of a professionally staged performance of a play text in each of the genres and dramatic movements. The learners have to demonstrate understanding and applied competence in e.g.:
 - Commedia dell' arte Scapino by Moliere
 - African Drama Forms, African Myths or Storytelling, e.g. Have you seen Zandile
 - Greek Theatre Antigone by Sophocles
 - South African Theatre any works/workshop play
 - Elizabethan Theatre Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare
 - Realism Hedda Gabler by Gina Hlope
 - Epic Theatre Caucasian Chalk Circle by Bertolt Brecht
 - Theatre of the Absurd Waiting for Godot by Samuel Beckett
 - Postmodern Theatre Top girls by Carol Churchill
 - South African Theatre Pre-1994 Woza Albert! by M Ngema, P Mtwa, B Simon
 - South African Theatre Post-1994 Missing by Reza de Wet
- The above-mentioned play texts are ONLY examples. It is not possible to mention all possibilities. Broaden the range of options and select the most appropriate play text for the dramatic movement or genre.

4.4 ARTICULATION WITH GET

The teacher teaching drama in creative arts should ensure learners in Grades 8 and 9 receive a solid foundation in the concepts, skills, knowledge and content of Drama. At the end of Grade 9 it is suggested that interviews and auditions be held to ensure only learners who are disciplined, hardworking, interested, committed and have potential are selected for FET Dramatic Arts. Ensure that the class ratio for Grade 10 is as per the provincial set norm. If Drama classes are too full injuries may occur and the interested and hardworking drama learners may be disadvantaged because they will not receive the dedicated one on one teaching required for drama.

4.5 TIMETABLING

Timetabling for Dramatic Arts requires a minimum of 4 hours per week during school time and one hour after school. This hour ration is applicable to Grades 10, 11 and 12 respectively. Additional time is essential after school hours for completion of the PATs, remediation, enrichment, rehearsals, performances and field trips to view drama performances.

5. CONCLUSION

On completion of the practical assessment task learners should be able to demonstrate their understanding of the industry, enhance their knowledge, skills, values and reasoning abilities as well as establish connections to life outside the classroom and address real-world challenges. The PAT furthermore develops learners' life skills and provides opportunities for learners to engage in their own learning.

RESEARCH		ASSESSMENT TOOL	RUBRIC
CATEGORY	MARK %	LEVEL DESCRIPTORS
Outstanding achievement	23–25	Well organised, comprehensive and coherent, polished structure. Supported by an exceptionally high level of competence. Able to process information into original interpretation and thoughtful selection of facts. Uses a variety of original and/or relevant dramatic references and/or film clips. Insightful, fluent, observation and knowledge powerfully expressed. If models or mixed media are used, they are well executed and compliment the research.
Meritorious achievement	20–22	Well organised, detailed and coherent, polished structure. Supported by a high level of competence to process information with an original interpretation and careful selection of facts. Using original or unusual selection of relevant dramatic references and/or film clips. Shows insight, observation and knowledge well expressed. If models or mixed media are used, they complement to the research.
Substantial achievement	17–19	Organised, detailed, some level of competence, some slight flaws evident in structure. Interesting reading, clear statements, convincing, simple direct language. Supported by a selection of relevant dramatic references and/or film clips. Shows good grasp of the theme/task, some insightful statements. Obvious care and effort taken with presentation. If models or mixed media are used, they link to the research.
Adequate achievement	13–16	Structure not always logical or organised, reasonable effort with presentation. Displays a basic understanding but tends towards mechanistic and stereotyped responses at times. Adequate selection of relevant dramatic references and/or film. Adequate reading but appears memorised. Not always a high level of insight, sometimes unimaginative but has some ability to justify discussion. If models or mixed media are used, they are not always supported by the research.
Moderate achievement	10–12	Not always organised or logically constructed. Not always enough information, some flashes of insight. Limited selection of information. Poor language skills. Argument lacks supporting discussion. Any models or mixed media used are not well executed or particularly relevant.
Elementary achievement	6–9	Rambling – no structure, limited vocabulary, little attempt to present information in an acceptable manner. Very little information, jumbled, not easy to follow, often irrelevant. Poor language skills. Argument lacks supporting discussion. Unlikely to have a supporting model, any mixed media will be poorly executed.
Not achieved	0–5	Incoherent, very little work, limited skills. Irrelevant information provided, lacking any supporting discussion.

The learner demonstrates little or no understanding of the scene as it stands within the context of the play as a whole. The learner does not understand the basic dilemma/conflict of the scene, the characters and their motivations. There is complete misinterpretation of the given circumstances.
Vocal characterisation	The learner demonstrates an understanding of the elements of voice work and to communicate the personality, background, class, age, education and status of the speaker. The learner is able to interpret a text, make appropriate choices for characterisation and use these chosen characteristics without vocal strain. These characteristics may include pitch, intonation, range, rhythm, accent, tone and quality in order to successfully and appropriately convey the voice of their character.	The learner is partially successful in creating and sustaining vocal characterisation, or there may be indications of vocal strain. Certain aspects of the characterisation may be inappropriate for the particular character or context.	The learner is unsuccessful in creating and sustaining vocal characterisation, or there is vocal strain throughout the performance. The vocal characterisation is inappropriate for the particular character or context.
Vocal clarity	The learner is able to speak distinctly and audibly. The learner is able to use the appropriate volume for a space, without vocal strain.	The learner is partially successful in speaking distinctly and audibly. There are momentary lapses, or there are moments of strain.	The learner is unsuccessful in speaking distinctly and audibly. Volume can only be attained with vocal strain.
Physical characterisation	The learner demonstrates an ability to adapt their body in terms of posture, energy, weight, size and quality of gestures, physical rhythms and habits in order to successfully and appropriately convey the physicality of the character.	The learner is partially successful in creating and sustaining a physical characterisation, or there may be indications of unnecessary tension. Certain aspects of the characterisation may be inappropriate for the particular character or context.	The learner is unsuccessful in creating and sustaining a physical characterisation, or there is excessive unnecessary tension displayed throughout the performance. The physical characterisation is inappropriate for the particular character or context.
Stage sense – use of space	The learner demonstrates an ability to use the stage space appropriately and interestingly, in a way that the performance communicates clearly to the audience and indicates understanding of the changing dynamics of the relationship being explored. All movement (blocking, physical body, gestures) is motivated.	The learner is partially successful in using the stage space appropriately and interestingly. This may be due to self-consciousness, upstaging of others, and uncertainty in moments or unmotivated movements at times.	The learner is unsuccessful in using the stage space appropriately and interestingly. The learner is consistently self-conscious, upstages others, uncertain and moves often without motivation.
Emotional connection	The learner demonstrates an ability to connect with the emotions of the character appropriately and effectively in such a way as to convince the audience of the truth of these emotions.	The learner is partially successful in terms of connecting with the emotions of the character appropriately and effectively; the learner may not be totally convincing at all moments or may react inappropriately in some moments.	The learner is unsuccessful in terms of connecting with the emotions of the character appropriately and effectively; the learner is not at all convincing, or their emotional choices are entirely inappropriate.

Practical/ Performance Skills 1. The ability to understand and use a range of movements, choreographic styles and processes.	The learner uses a wide range of movements to create sequences and is able to understand and use various styles and processes. The learner shows a good understanding of the use of space, time and dynamics.	The learner is able to use a good range of movements to create sequences and shows an understanding of styles and processes of movement forms.	The learner is able to use a limited range of movements to create sequences and shows little understanding of the use of space, time and movement dynamics.
2. The ability to show competence and confidence in movement performance so that ideas are understood.	The learner performs clearly and confidently so that the movement ideas are understood by those watching.	The learner is able to perform ideas quite well so that movement ideas are understood.	The learner is able to perform some movement ideas clearly and now needs to develop more confidence when showing work to others.
Experimentation (Development and realisation of ideas) 1. The ability to use a variety of stimuli, accompaniments and movement styles to create sequences.	The learner uses a wide range of stimuli and accompaniments with confidence to create complex sequences and show excellent use of various movement styles.	The learner is beginning to use some stimuli and accompaniments with confidence to create simple sequences and is developing a range of movement styles.	With help the learner can use some stimuli and accompaniments to create simple sequences. The learner is able to use simple movement styles to complete an item.
2. The ability to extend and develop an idea from the original stimulus and to try out ideas and select and reject them with reason and confidence in order to complete a task.	The learner is able to develop a simple idea into a complex sequence making clear decision about the work. The learner can explain reasons for selecting certain movements with confidence and use movement vocabulary to explain what the learner means.	With increasing confidence, the learner is able to develop an idea, trying out and choosing movements in order to complete the item.	With help and encouragement, the learner is able to develop a simple idea, trying out and choosing movements that the learner feels fit the item.
Critical Awareness 1. The ability to make analytical comments which helps improve the structure and performance of own and others' work.	The learner is able to make detailed and analytical comments about movement work that lead to improvements in structure and performance.	The learner is able to make comments that help to improve own and other people's work.	When prompted the learner can make comments on movement work his/she has done to help improve the work.
2. The ability to compare and contrast the work of different movement styles.	The learner can see and make subtle connections and comparisons between a variety of movement styles and is able to describe clearly what the learner means.	The learner is able to make connections between different movement works and styles	The learner is able to see obvious connections between different movement works with help and encouragement from the teacher.
3. The ability to understand the difference between objective judgments and personal preference when creating, using and watching movement forms.	The learner shows a clear understanding of movement forms and structure through the comments and vocabulary the learner uses. The learner is aware of own preferences in movement and is able to withhold them or use them appropriately.	The learner is able to talk about movement using appropriate words and is beginning to be aware of own movement preferences.	With prompting the learner can talk about why the learner likes a movement item using words to describe the movement content (e.g. line, shape, rhythm, dynamics, etc.)
Personal and Social Skills 1. The ability to work co-operatively as a member of a group, sharing ideas so that the task is completed.	The learner works co-operatively as a member of a group and contributes and shares many ideas with the group.	The learner usually works co-operatively with other people contributing some ideas to the work of the group.	The learner can sometimes work co-operatively with other people sharing some ideas in order to help complete a group task.
2. The ability to work at developing an idea and organising work independently.	The learner is very well organised and is able to develop ideas successfully on his/her own	The learner is able to organise work and can develop simple ideas on his/her own.	The learner can develop and complete some items of work on their own with help and encouragement from the teacher.
3. The ability to sustain focus and effort through all stages and kinds of work.	The learner remains interested in the task through all the stages of development and works hard even when the task is challenging.	The learner is usually able to keep working on an idea from beginning to end.	The learner is sometimes able to keep working on an idea from beginning to end when helped and encouraged.

The learner demonstrates some understanding of the poem and the interpretation should be appropriate and justified.	The learner does not demonstrate an understanding of the poem and the interpretation is not appropriate or justified.
Expression of meaning	The learner understands how to convey meaning through the use of such elements as phrasing, pause, emphasis, intonation and tone. The learner is able to interpret a text using these elements and communicates the meaning of the text clearly and expressively.	The learner is only partially successful in conveying the meaning of the poem. The meaning is not always fully clear or expressive.	The learner is not successful in conveying the meaning of the poem. The meaning is not unclear or inexpressively conveyed.
Vocal expressive-ness	The learner is able to create a balanced, well trained voice which is unique, appropriate to them and shows no signs of strain. The learner explores and utilises the expressive, interpretative and musical aspects of speech sounds in order to express subtleties of meaning and convey mood/atmosphere.	The learner's voice is not consistently balanced or is distracting to listen to, or there is some evidence of vocal strain. The learner is not completely successful in exploring and utilising the expressive, interpretative and musical aspects of speech sounds in order to express subtleties of meaning and convey mood/atmosphere.	The learner's voice is not balanced or is distracting to listen to, or there is evidence of excessive vocal strain. The learner is unsuccessful in exploring and utilising the expressive, interpretative and musical aspects of speech sounds in order to express subtleties of meaning and convey mood/atmosphere.
Vocal clarity	The learner is able to speak distinctly and audibly. The learner is able to use the appropriate volume for a space, without vocal strain.	The learner is partially successful in speaking distinctly and audibly. There are momentary lapses, or there are moments of strain.	The learner is unsuccessful in speaking distinctly and audibly. Volume can only be attained with vocal strain.
Physical work	The learner chooses movement or stillness appropriate to the poem and to their interpretation of it. The learner demonstrates control over the body in order to release unnecessary tension and establish optimal alignment and balance. The body supports the voice and is integrated with it.	The learner's choices in terms of movement or stillness are not always appropriate to the poem OR there is a lack of control over physicality in moments OR there is evidence of unnecessary tension at times OR the body is not fully integrated into the poem.	The learner chooses movement or stillness which is inappropriate to the poem OR there is little or no control over physicality OR there is evidence of excessive unnecessary tension OR the body is not integrated into the poem at all.
Emotional connection	The learner is able to connect with the emotions of the persona in the poem appropriately and effectively in such a way as to convince the audience of the truth of these emotions.	The learner is partially successful in terms of connecting with the emotions of the persona of the poem appropriately and effectively; they may not be totally convincing at all moments, or they may react inappropriately in certain moments.	The learner is unsuccessful in terms of connecting with the emotions of the persona of the poem appropriately and effectively; the learner is not at all convincing, or emotional choices are entirely inappropriate.
Creation of appropriate mood	The learner uses vocal and physical expressiveness in order to create a mood/atmosphere appropriate to the poem.	The creation of mood is inconsistent, inappropriate or not fully sustained through the poem.	There is little or no evidence of understanding of the mood, or the ability to create it effectively using voice and body.
Use of poetic devices	The learner demonstrates a mastery of the poetic devices inherent in their poem, including utilisation of pause, line and verse lengths, rhythm, meter, rhyme, imagery, register, tone.	Not all poetic devices are handled with mastery.	Poetic devices are not well handled.
Impact of poem	The learner's presentation is memorable, effective and engaging.	The poem has some memorable, effective, engaging moments, but these are inconsistent.	The poem has few or no memorable, effective, engaging moments.

CRITERIA	ACHIEVED WITH MERIT	ACHIEVED	PARTIALLY ACHIEVED
Preparation	The learner knows the words of the piece of prose and shows evidence of thought, planning and rehearsal.	The learner knows the words, but there is some evidence of uncertainty or lack of rehearsal.	The learner does not know the words of the piece of prose and does not show evidence of thought, planning and rehearsal.
Understanding of piece of prose	The learner demonstrates an understanding of the piece of prose and interpretation is appropriate and justified.	The learner demonstrates some understanding of the piece of prose and interpretation should be appropriate and justified.	The learner does not demonstrate an understanding of the piece of prose and interpretation is not appropriate or justified.
Expression of meaning	The learner conveys meaning successfully through the use of such elements as phrasing, pause, emphasis, intonation and tone. The learner is able to interpret a text using these elements and communicates the meaning of the text clearly and expressively.	The learner is only partially successful in conveying the meaning of the piece of prose. The meaning is not always fully clear or expressive.	The learner is not successful in conveying the meaning of the piece of prose. The meaning is unclear and lacks expression.
Vocal expressiveness	The learner uses a balanced, well trained voice, which is unique, appropriate to him/her and shows no signs of strain. The learner explores and utilises the expressive, interpretative and musical aspects of speech sounds in order to express subtleties of meaning and convey mood/atmosphere.	The learner's voice is not consistently balanced or pleasant to listen to, or there is some evidence of vocal strain. The learner is not completely successful in exploring and utilising the expressive, interpretative and musical aspects of speech sounds in order to express subtleties of meaning and convey mood/atmosphere.	The learner's voice is not balanced or is distracting to listen to, or there is evidence of excessive vocal strain. The learner is not at all successful in exploring and utilising the expressive, interpretative and musical aspects of speech sounds in order to express subtleties of meaning and convey mood/atmosphere.
Vocal clarity	The learner is able to speak distinctly and audibly. The learner is able to use the appropriate volume for a space, without vocal strain.	The learner is partially successful in speaking distinctly and audibly. There are momentary lapses, or there are moments of strain.	The learner is unsuccessful in speaking distinctly and audibly. Volume can only be attained with vocal strain.
Physical work	The learner chooses movement or stillness appropriate to the piece of prose and to the learner interpretation of it. The learner demonstrates control over the learner body in order to release unnecessary tension and establish optimal alignment and balance. The body is used creatively and expressively to assist in the dramatisation of the piece of prose.	The learner's choices in terms of movement or stillness are not always appropriate to the piece of prose OR there is a lack of control over the learner physicality in moments OR there is evidence of unnecessary tension at times. There is only some evidence of creativity and expressiveness in the use of body.	The learner chooses movement or stillness which is inappropriate to the piece of prose OR there is little or no control over their physicality OR there is evidence of excessive unnecessary tension. There is little or no evidence of creativity and expressiveness in the use of body.
Dramatisation as performance piece	The learner uses original, effective theatrical means to dramatize the piece of prose so that it works as a piece of performance.	The learner is partially effective or original in terms of using theatrical means to dramatize the piece of prose so that it works as a piece of performance.	The learner is unsuccessful in terms of using theatrical means to dramatize the piece of prose so that it works as a piece of performance.
Use of appropriate narrative techniques	The learner is aware of the style of their story and the narrative techniques inherent in it. (e.g. intosomi telling, fairy tales or myths) The learner uses appropriate techniques in the learner performance, including third-person narration, character creation, use of song or chant.	The learner is partially successful in using the appropriate narrative techniques, or uses some but not others, or uses some inappropriate narrative techniques, which do not work with the style of their story.	The learner is unsuccessful in using appropriate narrative techniques or uses completely inappropriate narrative techniques, which do not work with the style of the learner story.
Creation of appropriate mood/style/genre	The learner demonstrates an ability to use vocal and physical expressiveness in order to create a mood/style/genre appropriate to the piece of prose.	There is some attempt to interpret genre and style appropriately, but the demands of the genre/style are not fully realised throughout the prose piece.	There is little or no attempt to interpret genre and style appropriately and the demands of the genre/style are not realised throughout the prose piece.
Impact of prose piece	The learner's presentation is memorable, effective and engaging.	The prose piece has some memorable, effective, engaging moments, but these are inconsistent.	The prose piece has few or no memorable, effective, engaging moments.

FILM MAKING	ASSESSMENT TOOL				RUBRIC
	0–7	8–13	14–19	20–22	23–25
CRITERIA	NOT ACHIEVED	MODERATELY ACHIEVED	ADEQUATE ACHIEVEMENT	MERITORIOUS ACHIEVEMENT	OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT
Production File: Script and script interpretation/adaptation for film	Scripts must be correctly formatted for film. Presuming that scripts have to be adapted from existing works (plays, poems or prose), scripts must communicate the essence of the source work but must be adapted for screen in a way that is cinematic/audio-visual. Scripts must have an appropriate narrative arc with a sense of beginning, middle and end – even if it is cyclical or repetitive. Scripts must 'show not tell.' Dialogue must be lean and not overburdened with detail.
Production File: Pre-production and production planning and documents shot-list, call-sheet, contingencies, etc.	Learners should show extensive pre-production work in a production file which could also include a journal. This shows the thinking, planning and process behind the film as well as indicating that the work as the student's own. Learners must include documents such as notes on production design, a script outline, storyboards, a shot list, a call sheet (containing all the key details of the shoot). Learners must develop a contingency plan for possible mistakes and unforeseen problems. This can also be included in the journal.
Production File: Post-production documents and reflection	This can be included in the file above but is a section specifically on the post-production process. This could include log sheets, other editing notes, notes on the process and difficulties encountered and journal notes on the postproduction process as a whole.
Cinematography	Are shots well-composed? Have the shots been planned? Are shots appropriate for the content? Are shots motivated? Camera movement or stillness used well? Are visuals striking?
Mise-en-scène	Does the mise-en-scène tie in with and support the overall production design? How effectively has the location been used or a set been created? Efficacy of props, costumes, make-up, hair – has attention been paid to all of these?
Audio elements/ Effects	Can we hear what's going on? How effectively has a soundscape been created, including ambient sound? Has (royalty-free) music been used effectively to create mood and support or drive visuals and narrative? Have sound effects been used (where relevant) to enhance the production?
Editing	Does the editing of the film make sense? Is it smooth and free of unintentional errors? Does the learner appear to understand the 'grammar' of editing? Does the editing style enhance and complement the overall style of the film?
Performance elements (direction, choices, etc.)	Is the casting appropriate? Has the director elicited performances which are appropriate in style to the piece? Are the performances engaging and convincing? Do the performances adequately convey the narrative of the script?
Overall impact of the film	Do we understand what's going on? Has the filmmaker communicated clearly? Is the work as a whole engaging and satisfying? Do all the aspects (performance, visual, audio, editing) reinforce each other? Are we moved? Do we laugh? Does it have the desired effect? How original is the work? Does it stand out?
Interview with the candidate	Can the candidate articulate their intentions regarding the piece? Can they discuss their influences and interests and how they came to this idea? Can the candidate explain the choices they made at each stage of the production – including any changes they made during the process? Can they discuss the high and low moments of the process? Did they receive any help? Very importantly, is the work theirs? The journal and the interview are important in assessing this.

The candidate provides a list of all costumes and all scenes for use are indicated. Detail is provided and the list is easy to navigate. Research around suitable costumes is extensive, and the best selections have been made.
Furniture list (where applicable)	The candidate fails to provide a furniture list.	The candidate provides a furniture list. Some furniture is listed and scenes for use are not indicated.	The candidate provides a furniture list of most furniture as well as most scenes for use is indicated.	The candidate provides a complete furniture list, scenes for use are indicated and most functions are indicated. Research around suitable furniture is provided.	The candidate provides a complete furniture list, scenes for use are indicated and the function of each piece of furniture. The list is easy to navigate. Research around suitable furniture is extensive, and the best selections have been made.
Cast list with contact numbers	The candidate fails to provide a cast list.	The candidate provides evidence of some cast members listed for some scene(s) with some contact details.	The candidate provides a complete cast list but not for each scene with most contact details.	Complete cast list is supplied for each scene with contact details in at least 1 medium of communication.	Complete cast list is supplied for each scene with full contact details via different mediums of communication.
Sound cues (where applicable)	The candidate fails to provide evidence of sound cues indicated.	The candidate provides evidence of some sound cues with sound levels indicated.	The candidate provides evidence of indicated sound cues with impulse reflecting speaker selection and sound level.	The candidate provides evidence of indicated sound cues with impulse, reflecting speaker selection and sound level but sound level not always appropriate to for the performance space.	The candidate provides evidence of indicated sound cues with impulse, reflecting speaker selection and sound level, with appropriate anticipation markers. The sound level is appropriate to for the performance space. Placement of speakers has been considered and is effective.
Light cues (where applicable) (consider equipment available)	The candidate fails to provide evidence indicated in the stage manager prompt book, of LX cues indicated.	The candidate provides evidence indicated in the stage manager prompt book, of some LX cues reflecting light intensity.	The candidate provides evidence indicated in the stage manager prompt book, of LX cues reflecting light area and light intensity as well as timing.	The candidate provides evidence indicated in the stage manager prompt book, of LX cues, with impulse indicated, reflecting light area and light intensity as well as timing.	The candidate provides evidence indicated in the stage manager prompt book, of all LX cues correctly indicated, with impulse and appropriate anticipation markings, reflecting light area and light intensity appropriate to the performance space as well as timing.
Movements noted	The candidate fails to provide notes of movements indicated in the stage manager prompt book.	The candidate provides evidence of some movements noted indicated in the stage manager prompt book.	The candidate provides evidence of all movements noted indicated in the stage manager prompt book.	The candidate provides evidence of all movements noted with the use of appropriate abbreviations, indicated in the stage manager prompt book.	The candidate provides evidence of all movements noted with the use of appropriate abbreviations and reference to furniture and décor indicated in the stage manager prompt book.

What is a solution to the problem of ...?	Synthesis of Ideas
What would happen if ...?	Prediction/Hypothesizing
What is another way to look at ...?	Synthesis/Differing Point of View
What is ... analogous to?	Synthesis/Identification and Creation of Analogies and Metaphors
What is the best ... and why?	Evaluation/Provision of Evidence
Do you agree or disagree with this statement ...?	Evaluation/Provision of Evidence
What evidence is there to support your answer?

ANNEXURE Q:ASSESSMENT/MARKING/MODERATION: GOOD PRACTICE

- Do the procedures used to ensure that marking is carried out accurately include training and monitoring of the examiners?
- Are procedures in place and used to check accuracy of marking?
- Are routine training or coordination procedures provided for markers and examiners?
- Is this carried out to ensure standardisation?
- Are single- or double-rating methods used, as opposed to 'shadow marking'?
- Are checking methods used to detect possible human error?
- Are procedures used and in place when differences between raters occur?
- Are procedures used to establish pass marks and/or grades and cut scores?
- Is the standard set and maintained?
- Are assessment scales set and linked to CAPS?
- Are cut scores set for pass/fail and other boundaries?
- Are the different grade boundaries decided by samples and consensus?
- Do moderators ensure that differences in performance are related primarily to skills under assessment rather than to irrelevant factors?
- Are procedures used to detect test bias introduced by factors such as home language, country of origin (xenophobic bias), gender, religion, culture, age and race/ethnic origin?
- Is standardisation of marks achieved?

ANNEXURE R:MODERATION TOOL: TEMPLATE FOR INTERNAL AND PROVINCIAL MODERATION*MODERATION TOOL

See the Moderation Tool on the following page. It is only an example that may be used by subject advisors to moderate teachers' and learners' PAT Lesson Planning and Assessment evidence.

NOTE: The Department of Basic Education expects the PATs to be provincially moderated by the subject advisors and lead teachers in each province. Subject advisors in each of the nine provinces will, in consultation with the subject teachers, decide on a timetable for the moderation of the PATs.

NOTES TO THE MODERATOR: There is a relationship between the CAPS Topics , the Lesson Plans and the Assessment Brief . Ensure there is a Lesson Plan for each CAPS Topic filed in the TEACHER PLANNING AND ADMINISTRATION FILE . The design of the Lesson Plan will be determined by the respective provinces. Moderate each Lesson Plan to ensure the teaching of content was based on the CAPS Topics. Moderate the Assessment Briefs for each of the three PATs, to ensure the content being taught in the above Lesson Plans is covered by the relevant Assessment Brief. Ensure the rubric criteria are integrated in the Lesson Plans.

MODERATION TOOL: DESIGN ELEMENTS

Each provincial education department may design their own individual MODERATION TOOL to moderate the three PATs. However ensure that the following headings/aspects have headings/columns/space for moderation and comments on the design of Moderation Tool.

- Name of the school being moderated
- Status of the moderation
- Focus
- Subject
- Grade
- Name and surname of the teacher being moderated
- Name and surname of the subject advisor responsible for the moderation
- Year, date, day
- Lesson Plans 1–8, underpinning the teaching towards the content being assessed in the Assessment Tasks.
List as:
 - Lesson Plan 1 for Topic 1,
 - Lesson Plan 2 for Topic 2, etc. until Lesson Plan 8 for Topic 8
- The following aspects should be in evidence for each Lesson Plan and should be rigorously moderated
 - Term
 - CAPS Broad Topics
 - CAPS Topic
 - Duration of the lesson
 - Learning and Teaching Support materials
 - CAPS concepts: Skills, knowledge and content
 - CAPS: Theory with cross referencing to the DBE textbook chapter and number
 - CAPS Practical with cross referencing to the DBE textbook chapter and number
 - Detailed instructions with cross referencing to the DBE textbook chapter and number
 - Detailed activities with cross referencing to the DBE textbook chapter and number
 - Detailed exercises with cross referencing to the DBE textbook chapter and number
 - Detail support materials with cross referencing to the DBE textbook chapter and number
 - Detailed support aids, e.g. DVD/photos/illustrations/field trip, etc.
 - Assessment task number
- Assessment Tasks 1–7, designed by the teacher to assess the CAPS Broad Topics and Topics
- Assessment evidence as presented by each learner in both the required Written/Performance formats
List as:
 - Assessment Task 1
 - Assessment Task 2, etc. until Assessment Task 7
- The following aspects should be in evidence for each Assessment Task and should be rigorously moderated:
 - Term
 - CAPS Broad Topics
 - CAPS Topic
 - Type of Assessment Task: Performance Assessment task: Written Section: Essay
 - Duration of the Assessment Task
 - Marks allocated to the task
 - Assessment Instruction/Brief. Detailed description must be given to the learner
 - List of CAPS Topics that will be assessed
 - List of CAPS Theory aspects that will be assessed
 - List of CAPS Practical aspects that will be assessed
 - Assessment Tool – Rubric
