TOTAL SECTION A: 30

Answer only ONE question in this section.

QUESTION 2: WOZA ALBERT! BY PERCY MTWA, MBONGENI NGEMA AND BARNEY SIMON

Study SOURCE B below and answer the questions that follow.

SOURCE B

Woza Albert! is a unique blend of protest theatre, township theatre and satire. Though they had many ideas for the episodes in the play, they had no structure. Finally they decided to structure the work by creating a series of parallels between the story of Jesus, as it appears in the Gospels, and their own story. In Ngema's words, they 'translated the New Testament into today'. Simon, as director, knew what to leave out and what to add and he also had skill with lines. Wole Sonyika described the final product as being 'a Theatre of Poverty at its most affirmative, a reflection of the cultural reality that brought it into being'.

Both actors play many roles. Woza Albert! relies heavily on images rather than dialogue to tell the story. The highly theatrical opening scene begins with the image of a jazz band created by the actors, who then transform into a white policeman and a black musician.

2.1 Name the theatrical term used to describe the dramatic structure of Woza Albert! Refer to line 3. (1)

2.2 Suggest the advantages of the dramatic structure identified in QUESTION 2.1. (4)

2.3 Using examples from the play text, motivate why Woza Albert! might be defined as protest theatre. (6)

2.4 Discuss where and how Mbongeni Ngema and Percy Mtwa found the material to create their play, Woza Albert!, which is based on the question, 'What would you do if Jesus Christ came to South Africa today?' (6)

2.5 Name a theatre practitioner who influenced the Theatre of Poverty style (line 7) in Woza Albert! (1)

2.6 Motivate why Woza Albert! might be considered to be an example of Theatre of Poverty (line 7). (6)

2.7 Describe the theatre skills and techniques the actors might use to create 'the image of a jazz band' (line 11) and 'transform into a white policeman and a black musician' (lines 11 and 12). (6)

2.8 Discuss how Woza Albert! might be a 'reflection of the cultural reality' (lines 7–8) that influenced the creation of the play. Focus on: Characters, Themes, Socio-political context (10)
QUESTION 3: SOPHIATOWN BY THE JUNCTION AVENUE THEATRE COMPANY

Study SOURCE C below and answer the questions that follow.

SOURCE C

Johannesburg, 25 March 2016 – The classic musical, Sophiatown, is returning to the Market Theatre in Johannesburg. First performed in 1986 as a 'living newspaper', veteran director, Malcolm Purkey, one of the original members of The Junction Avenue Theatre Company, is bringing the memorable production to life once again.

—eNCA News

3.1 Suggest why Sophiatown might be regarded as a classic musical. (4)

3.2 Explain your understanding of the term living newspaper. (2)

3.3 Discuss the value and function of creating Sophiatown, the play, as a 'living newspaper'. (6)

3.4 Assess why it might be important for Sophiatown to be brought to life once again on stage today. (6)
3.5 You were asked to assist Malcolm Purkey in directing and staging the final scene of the play.

3.5.1 How would you, as a young director, benefit from working with Malcolm Purkey on this new production? (2)

3.5.2 Discuss how you might block the final scene of the play using the stage depicted in SOURCE C. (4)

3.5.3 As a director, discuss the vocal and physical performance choices you would suggest to the actors portraying Jakes and Mamariti to enhance the impact of the final scene. (6)

3.6 Evaluate whether the staging and design of Malcolm Purkey’s new production, as depicted in SOURCE C, are effective.

Include the following in your evaluation:

- Set design
- Lighting
- Stage type (10)
QUESTION 4: Siener in die Suburbs by PG Du Plessis

Study SOURCE D below and answer the questions that follow.

SOURCE D

| TIEMIE:   | Ma ... Ma, ek is anders ... as Ma. Tjokkie lieg, Ma. Ek's nie so nie. |
| MA:      | Tiemietjie, Here tog, Tiemietjie ... |
| TJOKKIE: | Ek maak net almal seer. |
| JAKES:   | Moenie nou staan en mekaar opjazz oor hoe goed julle is nie. |
| MA:      | Loop, Jakes. |
| JAKES:   | Hoekom sal ek loop? |
| MA:      | Loop! |
| JAKES:   | Loop lat die klas girls mekaar kan staan en vertel hoe goed hulle eintlik is? Ek wil weet wie se laaitie is daardie. Ek laat nie weer 'n Sybil op my trek nie. |
| MA:      | Loop! Ek sal die polisie roep. |
| JAKES:   | Loop roep hulle. |
| MA:      | Albertus, gaan sê vir Sarge. (Albertus af.) |
| JAKES:   | Laat hom loop. Ons sien wie is eerste klaar met wie. Ek sal julle ... julle is sleg, man. Julle is altwee slegter as hierdie tang. |
| TIEMIE:  | Loop asseblief, Jakes. Wat soek jy hier? |
| JAKES:   | Justice. |
| TIEMIE:  | Justice! Was dit justice toe jy my sommer aspris in die moeilikheid wou bring? Jy's nog nooit 'n ding vir my oorgehad nie. |

A big production company will be filming a contemporary (modern) version of Siener in die Suburbs. Your acting agent has asked you to audition for the role of EITHER Jakes OR Tiemie and has advised you to research the play.

4.1 According to Tiemie, what is Tjokkie lying about (line 1)? (1)

4.2 Explain what Tiemie means when she says that she is different from Ma (line 1). (2)

4.3 Suggest why Tjokkie feels that he has hurt everyone (line 3). (2)
4.4 The director states that Siener in die Suburbs may be classified as a realistic play because it adheres (keeps) to the three unities of time, place and action.

With reference to the play as a whole, explain whether this statement is accurate or inaccurate. (6)

4.5 Discuss your design ideas on how to modernise some aspects of the play for the new film version. Focus on the following:
