Mr Enver Surty,
Deputy Minister
of Basic Education

These workbooks have been developed for the children of South Africa under the leadership of the Minister of Basic Education, Mrs Angie Motshekga, and the Deputy Minister of Basic Education, Mr Enver Surty.

The Rainbow Workbooks form part of the Department of Basic Education's range of interventions aimed at improving the performance of South African learners in the first six grades. As one of the priorities of the Government's Plan of Action, this project has been made possible by the generous funding of the National Treasury. This has enabled the Department to make these workbooks, in all the official languages, available at no cost.

We hope that teachers will find these workbooks useful in their everyday teaching and in ensuring that their learners cover the curriculum. We have taken care to guide the teacher through each of the activities by the inclusion of icons that indicate what it is that the learner should do.

We sincerely hope that children will enjoy working through the book as they grow and learn, and that you, the teacher, will share their pleasure.

We wish you and your learners every success in using these workbooks.

GUIDELINES FOR USING THIS WORKBOOK

Use the Workbook together with your other resources. Consult the CAPS intermediate phase for Home Language.

We wish to welcome you to the intermediate phase Home Language Workbook. The Home Language level for the intermediate phase is intended to develop learners' language proficiency in the communication skills required in social situations, and to develop their cognitive academic skills essential for learning across the curriculum. We hope that you will find this Workbook useful in assisting your learners to develop these competences.

The Workbook is organised according to the two-week cycles of the CAPS. You will find the overview of what will be covered in each of the two week cycles on pages 1, 35, 69 and 103 of this Workbook. Each 2-week cycle is packaged to include the following four language skills:

Let's talk

1 Listening and Speaking (Oral) – 2 hours per 2-week cycle

Learners need frequent opportunities to develop their Listening and Speaking skills to enable them to collect information, solve problems and express ideas and opinions. The Workbook contains a number of speaking and listening activities which you can extend upon to ensure that learners have regular opportunities for oral practise.

Let's read

2 Reading and Viewing – 5 hours per 2-week cycle

The CAPS require learners to read and view specific texts and genres in each 2-week cycle. This includes reading: short stories, folklore, personal recounts, letters, e-mails, diary entries, drama, newspaper articles, magazine articles, radio interviews, poetry, persuasive texts, advertisements, instructions, directions and procedures. In addition, the CAPS require learners to read information text with visuals: maps, charts, tables, diagrams, mind maps, weather charts, posters, notices, pictures and graphs. You will find a good selection of these types of texts in the Workbook.

The CAPS specify a process for reading comprising of pre-reading, reading and post reading stages. You will find a useful graphic explanation of the 'reading process' in the inner front cover of this book.

Let's write

3 Writing and Presenting – 4 hours per 2-week cycle

The CAPS require learners to have frequent opportunities to practise writing across a range of contexts. The Workbook provides a number of writing frames and organisers to scaffold learners' presentations of written, visual and multi-media texts. You will find a graphic explanation of the 'writing process' in the back inner cover of the Workbook.

Let's write

LANGUAGE

4 Language Structures and Conventions – 1 hour per 2-week cycle

The CAPS provide a list of Language Structures and Conventions (items) that should be covered in each grade. The Workbook includes specific exercises for each of the 2-week cycles. Usually these activities include a 'note' explaining the language convention.

For further guidance please consult the Workbook Training Manual.

Let's talk

Look at the picture and say what you think the story is about. Do you think this will be a true story? How old do you think the children in the story are?

Before you read

- Look at the pictures and headings and try to predict what the text will be about.
- Skim the page to see what you will read about.

While you read

- Compare your predictions with what you read.
- If you don't understand a section, read it again slowly. Read it aloud.

Let's read

It was a cool day in January and the under-11 soccer team jumped off the bus talking loudly. They were on their way to play their final match for the season. As they walked across the field towards the stadium they could hear the vuvuzelas and the cheering of the children.

Everyone was excited about the final game between New Town School and Sea View Primary School.

Anna and Mandu were the only girls in the New Town team. They hoped they would be good enough to beat Sea View Primary.

As Anna, the captain, walked across the field, she imagined herself receiving the trophy for her team. She pictured it gleaming in the sunshine. Anna was very caring. She had organised a school concert to raise money to buy soccer boots for her team-mates who couldn't afford to buy their own boots. Today she was ready to lead her team to victory!

Eleven-year-old Mandu was also excited. She imagined scoring the winning goal with her new yellow soccer boots. Suddenly she gave a loud cry as she fell into a hole.

"Help me!" she wailed. Anna, Peter and Jabu ran back and helped her out.

"Oh no!" she cried, as she hopped about on one leg. "I can't stand on my foot!"

She sat down on the grass. "I hope I haven't broken my ankle," she said, tearfully.

Anna wondered how Mandu's injury would affect her. "If Mandu can't play, it means I can't play. I will need to take her to the clinic," she thought.

Anna took a deep breath.

"Don't worry, Mandu," she said. "I'll get you to a doctor."

"No, Anna, no! You can't do that. I'll wait here until after the match."

"You can't stay here alone, Mandu," Anna replied.

Anna turned to the team. Desperately holding back her tears, she said, "You go on and play. And make sure you win!"

Let's write

Talk to your partner about how you think the story will end.
Then write an ending of 40 – 50 words for the story.
Will Anna play or will she help Mandu?

Let's talk

We know about the characters in a story through their actions, their thoughts and their speech. Talk about Anna's character. Talk about what she did, what she thought and her actions.

Word work

Draw a line to match the word on the left with its meaning on the right.

imagined	shining and sparkling
gleaming	howled or cried
wailed	thought about
injury	very strongly
desperately	damage, sprain

Let's write

Read the story about Mandu and Anna and answer these questions.

Who are the two main characters in the story?

Now circle the letter next to the correct answer.

How do we know that Mandu was nervous?

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 | She did not see the hole in the grass. |
| 2 | She imagined kicking the winning goal. |
| 3 | She desperately wanted to play. |
| 4 | She could not sleep the previous night. |

How do we know the players were excited?

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 | They wished they would win. |
| 2 | They heard the vuvuzelas. |
| 3 | They jumped off the bus talking loudly. |
| 4 | They did not help Mandu. |

Which two teams were playing in the match?

Find a sentence in the story that shows that Anna was a caring person.

Do you think that Anna was a good friend to Mandu? Why?

Let's write

Write a summary 40 – 50 words about what happened to Mandu.

Let's read

Now read the end of the story.
Did anyone in your class expect this ending?

Anna supported Mandu as they walked back to the bus, and together they went to the clinic. The doctor carefully examined Mandu's foot. She took an X-ray, looked at it and smiled. She told them that Mandu's foot would be fine. She bandaged it and told Mandu that she could play soccer again as soon as she felt better.

"If you like," said the doctor, "I can drive you to the stadium. I haven't watched a game of soccer for a long time."

And so the kind doctor drove them to the stadium. They arrived at half time. The score was New Town 2 and Sea View 2. As the game started again, the two girls went onto the field.

Anna immediately scored a third goal for the New Town team, and just before the final whistle, Mandu scored the fourth goal. The crowd cheered and the vuvuzelas were heard as far as next village.

How excited the two girls were when the team went to collect the trophy for their school.

Before you read

- Look at the pictures and headings and try to predict what the text will be about.
- Skim the page to see what you will read about.

While you read

- Compare your predictions with what you read.
- If you don't understand a section, read it again slowly. Read it aloud.

Let's talk

Take turns with your friend to say what happened in the story from the time the soccer team got off the bus up to the end of the story when the New Town team won the game. Don't forget to say what the score was.

Let's write

Number these sentences from 1 to 6 to show the order in which things happened in the story.

	Mandu did not see a hole in the grass and fell into it.
	Anna took Mandu to the doctor.
	The doctor took the girls back to the stadium.

Would you like to go on such a school trip? Why?

INSECTS

An insect has three body parts,
No more, no less than three.
A head, a thorax and abdomen,
Are all the parts we see.

The head has mouthparts well designed,
With compound eyes as well.
Its antennae sense the world around,
They feel and hear and smell.

The thorax is where legs are joined.
Three pairs, six legs in all.
It's where the wings are joined on to.
To fly or jump or crawl.

The abdomen is where the systems are.
The systems that it needs.
To breathe, reproduce and digest.
The food on which it feeds.

Let's write

Read the poem aloud. Underline the pairs of rhyming words. Then use the description in the poem as a guide to draw a picture of an insect.

Let's talk

Look at these poems. What do you notice about them? How are they different from the other poems you have read? Do you like them? Say why.

Let's read

Now read the poems.

Pretty
lady butterfly
where have you been?

Why is it that all day you've hardly been seen?

Pretty, pretty butterfly where have you been?

I have been looking for you in gardens oh so green.

The sunlight was glowing where did you hide?

I looked for your pretty wings both far and wide.

Pretty, pretty

Writing the story on a cut-out book template.

This story is a folk tale. Folk tales are stories that people first told one another a long time ago. They were not written down and they spread as people retold them. We all know some folk tales and folklore, like nursery rhymes, fables, hero tales, myths and folk songs. Most of them have special messages.

Once upon a time there was a ten-year-old shepherd boy. Every day he took the sheep to the fields to eat grass. Every day, he sat under the same tree on top of a hill and watched the flock of sheep. Eventually, he began to feel bored. One day, to amuse himself, he called out, "Wolf! Wolf! Help! A wolf is chasing the sheep!"

Hearing his cry for help, the villagers came running up the hill to chase the wolf away. But when they arrived at the top of the hill, they did not find a wolf. They only found the boy, who laughed at them.

"Don't cry 'wolf' when there is no wolf!" scolded one of the villagers as they all went grumbling back down the hill.

The next day, the boy again called out, "Wolf! Wolf! Help me! The wolf is chasing the sheep!" Again the villagers ran up the hill to help him drive the wolf away.

When the villagers again saw no wolf, they said, "Little boy, you must only call for help when there is really something wrong! Don't cry 'wolf' when there is no wolf!"

The boy just grinned and watched them go grumbling down the hill once more.

A few days later, the boy saw a real wolf sniffing about his sheep. He was very frightened and he called out loudly, "Wolf! Wolf! Please help me!"

But the villagers thought he was trying to fool them again and so no one went to help him.

Later that night, the people in the village wondered why the shepherd boy had not returned to the village with the sheep. They went to look for him and found him weeping and alone.

"There really was a wolf! He ate some sheep and the others have run away! I called for help! Why didn't you come?" he sobbed.

One of the old villagers tried to comfort the boy as they walked back to the village.

"We'll help you look for the lost sheep in the morning," he said, putting his arm around the boy.

"But now you must learn that if you always tell a lie, nobody will believe you ... even when you tell the truth!"

Let's talk

Why did nobody come to help the boy?

Make up a role play about the story. You need a boy, a wolf, some sheep and some villagers.

Let's read

Thabo liked to draw attention to himself. He often called out for his family and friends to come and see a spaceship that he said he had spotted. "Come and see the spaceship!" he would shout, or "Help, a UFO has just landed!" (UFO is the short form for "unidentified flying object".)

Each time Thabo called, the whole town would run to the site to see the spaceship. And then there was nothing to be seen. "It's already gone!" he would tell everyone.

Thabo did this once, twice, thrice – too many times.

And then, one day, Thabo really did see a spaceship. "Help!" he called, "A spaceship has landed in the field. Help, please! Someone help!"

But nobody came.

Just then, a green alien jumped out of the spaceship and said to Thabo, "Please help me! I need petrol and food for my family. My children need food urgently! Please bring us some leaves, as many as you can!"

"Help!" screamed Thabo. "There are hungry aliens in the field!"

But nobody came.

So Thabo ran from tree to tree picking leaves and then ran off to the petrol station to buy some petrol. The green alien was grateful.

Thabo was exhausted and fell to the ground as the spaceship took off.

"What is that, Thabo?" called his mother as she saw the spaceship float out of sight.

"What's the good of telling you, Mom," Thabo said, shrugging his shoulders. "You won't believe me."

Let's talk

Role play this story. You will need an alien, some alien children, Thabo and his mother.

In what way is this story similar to "The boy who cried 'Wolf!'?"

Let's write

Think about both stories and then fill in the table.

Story	Who is the main character?	What is the plot?	What is the message of the story?
The boy who cried "Wolf!"
The boy who cried "Spaceship!"

Let's write

Now write your own story of approximately 120 words about a boy or girl who cried for help. First write your story on rough paper and ask your friend to check it. Then write it neatly in the space below.

Title for your story

What does he or she cry about?

What happens one day when no one answers?

What is the result of this?

What is the message or moral of the story?

What is a prefix?

A prefix is not a full word. It's a word part that is added at the beginning of a full word (called a root word). Every prefix has its own meaning. When a prefix is added to a root word, it changes the meaning of the root word.

A prefix changes the meaning of a word.

Let's do

Look at this example. What happens when you join the prefix and the root word? What does the new word mean?

Prefix	Root word
un-	tidy

What do these prefixes mean?

Prefix	Meaning
re	again
un	not
tri	three
pre	before
mis	wrong

Circle the prefixes in each of these words. Then underline the root word.

Let's write

misplace

misunderstand

redo

unsure refill

prepaid

replace

renew

unhappy

tricycle

prereading

rewrite

unfair

unkind

misbehave

triathlon

mislaid

Let's write

Add prefixes to the underlined words to change the meaning of these sentences.

He always behaved in class.

She was very tidy.

The soccer player was happy.

You must do your maths homework.

He had a red cycle.

Fun

Let's play a space game. Use a dice and markers to play, and blast off from number 1.

Let's talk

Talk about what you think these proverbs mean. Then draw a line to the meaning in the right-hand column.

Proverbs are very short sayings that give us a special message.

Put your best foot forward.

Barking dogs don't bite.

A leopard never changes its spots.

It's better to be safe than sorry.

Let sleeping dogs lie.

Don't disturb a situation that is going well as it will lead to problems.

Start a task or a journey with a strong purpose.

Don't be afraid of people who threaten you. They rarely take action.

People do not change.

We should be careful in a dangerous situation. It is better to stay safe than to have an accident (and be sorry about it).

What are suffixes?

Suffixes are like prefixes, except that they are added to the end of a root word to change its meaning.

An example: the ending -ful means "full of", so the word beautiful means full of beauty.

What do these suffixes mean?

Suffix	Meaning
less	without ful	full of
able	able to

Let's write

Underline the root words.
Then circle the suffixes at the end of these words.

grateful

hopeless

hopeful

cordless

playful

colourful speechless

careful enjoyable

successful

wonderful powerful readable capable harmless

cheerful

Select five of the words and use them in sentences.

Select the correct word, add the suffix -ful to it and write the new word in the space.

truth	She seemed _____ with her family around her.
play	The school play was _____ last night.
cheer	If only the shepherd boy was more _____.
colour	Her painting is very _____.
delight	My kitten is _____.
joy	My granny had a _____ birthday party.

Let's read

In many folk tales the animals behave and talk like humans. Read this story and think about the animal characters.

Before you read

- Look at the pictures and headings and try to predict what the text will be about.
- Skim the page to see what you will read about.

While you read

- Compare your predictions with what you read.
- If you don't understand a section, read it again slowly. Read it aloud.

A tree stood in the garden. The wind began to blow and a little leaf began to shake.

It fell off the tree. It fell down and down and down, until it landed on the grass under the tree. A cat was sitting on the grass. "Hello, little green leaf," said the cat. "Can I play with you?"

The little leaf was about to say yes, when the wind began to blow again. Whoosh! went the wind, and it lifted up the little leaf, up and up into the sky. The wind took it a long way. Then it dropped the little leaf gently at the side of the road.

"Hello, little yellow leaf," said a bird by the side of the road. "Are you going to stay with me?" "That's funny," said the little leaf. "The cat said I was green. Now the bird says I am yellow. I wonder what colour I am?"

The leaf was about to ask the bird when the wind began to blow again. Whoosh! went the wind, and it lifted the little leaf up and up into the sky. The wind took it a long way. Then it dropped the little leaf gently in a big field.

There were cows in the field, eating the grass. One of the cows came over to look at the little leaf. "Moo," said the cow. "Hello, little orange leaf." "That's funny," said the little leaf. "The cat said I was green and the bird said I was yellow. Now the cow says I am orange. I wonder what colour I am?"

The little leaf was just about to ask the cow when the wind began to blow again. Whoosh! went the wind and it lifted the little leaf up and up into the sky. The wind took it a long way. Then it dropped the little leaf gently on the top of a big hill.

Let's talk

What caused the leaf to fall from the tree?
 How did the leaf move from one animal to the next?
 Why does the writer use the word "whoosh"?
 Are there other stories you know of where the animals speak?
 What do you think will happen next in the story?
 How do you think the story will end?

Let's do

Draw the path that the leaf travelled from the tree to the cow.

Let's write

Now describe your picture using the words "first", "then", "after that" and "finally".

First the leaf

Then it

After that

Finally

Let's read

Let see how the story ends

The little leaf lay there for some time. Then a goat came up to it. "Hello, little red leaf," said the goat. "Have you come to live on the hill with me?" "That's funny," said the little leaf. "The cat said I was green and the bird said I was yellow and the cow said I was orange. Now the goat says I am red. I wonder what colour I am?"

The little leaf lay quite still. "Hello, little brown leaf," said a pig. "I nearly ate you just now. Did the wind bring you here?" "That's funny," said the little leaf. "The cat said I was green, the bird said I was yellow, the cow said I was orange and the goat said I was red. Now the pig says I am brown. I wonder what colour I am?"

Just then a little boy saw the leaf and picked it up. "Look," he said to his mother. "Look at this little gold leaf. And look at all the other leaves. They are green and yellow and orange and red and brown and gold." "Yes," said his mother. "Now that summer is over, the leaves are the colours of autumn."

Let's do

- Make up a role play about this story. You need nine actors:
- One person to be the leaf
 - Five children to act as the animals
 - One person to act as the boy
 - One person to be the mother
 - Finally, one person to be a narrator

The narrator tells the part of the story which is not spoken by the animals, the boy, the mother and the leaf.

Let's write

How many animals did the leaf speak to? List them and then say what each animal told the leaf.

Animal	What did it say to the leaf?
2
3
5

What did the little boy say about the colour of the leaf?

What did the boy's mother eventually say about the colour of the leaf?

Do you think the story is true? Why?

In what month do you think this story happened? Why do you say this?

Let's talk

Look back at the story of the little leaf.

- Talk about how the story began.
- Say how the story ended.

First write the story in rough and ask your friend to edit it. Then write it neatly in the spaces below. Your story should be about 120 – 140 words long.

Let's write

Draw a picture of how the story started and write a paragraph about the beginning of the story.

Date: _____

Let's do

Draw a picture of what happened to the leaf as it blew along and write a paragraph about what happened in the middle of the story.

Draw a picture of how the story ended and write a paragraph about the ending.

1

Two heads are better than one.

2

Don't put the cart before the horse.

3

The early bird gets the worm.

Fun

Now try the suffix-prefix race. Race against your friend. See who is the fastest at finding and underlining the prefixes or the suffixes.

Let's write

Choose five words from the picture and use them to form sentences.

Let's read

How to make your pompoms

- 1 Draw two large circles, exactly the same, on a piece of cardboard. Now cut them out.
- 2 Draw two smaller circles inside the two large circles. Cut them out, so that your large cardboard circles now have a hole in the middle.
- 3 Put the circles together, and wrap the yellow wool through the hole in the middle and around the outside until the circles are fully covered. You can use two or three strands of wool together to cover the circles more quickly.
- 4 Using sharp scissors, cut the wool between the edges of the two circles.
- 5 Insert the pipe cleaner or the twist tie through the middle to make legs for the chick.
 - Place a strand of wool between the cardboard circles and tie it tightly. Make two knots, then remove the cards.
 - Now make the small pompom with the two small circles. Do exactly the same, except that this pompom doesn't need legs.

Now make your chick.

- 6 Glue the two pompoms together.
- 7 Bend the pipe cleaner or twist tie to make two legs for the chick.
- 8 Cut out the feet, eyes and beak from the cut-out page at the back of your book.
- 9 Glue these onto the pompoms.

Let's write

Headline

11 year-old publishes cookbook

Zoe Bain

By-line

Introductory paragraph

Jack Witherspoon looks just like any other 11-year-old boy. He skateboards, plays football, and he loves to cook. But Jack, who has spent a lot of his life fighting against a serious illness, has just published his first cookbook, called “Twist it up”.

Jack became interested in cooking at the age of six when he spent a long period of time in hospital. He often watched programmes on the hospital’s TV, and it was then that he discovered the Food Network channel. He started making up his own recipes while he was in hospital and then, when he came home, he tested them.

Jack’s book is selling all over the world, and he donates some of the money he gets from the book to organisations that help poor children who become ill.

Let's talk

Read both articles A and B. In your group, talk about article A and B.

Talk about answers to these questions.

What are the headlines and how do they attract our attention?

What is in each of the first paragraphs and how does this attract our attention?

New Town School wins again 8 March 2015

Bheki Phakati

The New Town School Grade 4 class won a prize in the World Book Day celebration yesterday. The Grade 4 class read stories to the Grade 1 and 2 children in the school.

Each Grade 4 child read stories to children in the lower grades. The Grade 4 class made some of the books themselves. Other books were provided for free by the publishers. The small Grade 1 and 2 children loved the colourful books. Many of the children are from poor homes and do not have such nice books at home.

Design a Bookmark Competition

Two girls in the Grade 4 class won the Design a Bookmark Competition. The excited winners, Bongi Dube and Mary Smith, won a prize of 10 books for making the most unusual bookmarks.

Let's read

Let's read a weather map.

Let's talk

Talk to your friend about the weather map.

- What does the chart say about the weather in your province?
- Is the weather really like that today?
- Talk about the weather in the other provinces.
- What clothes would the people in the Eastern Cape wear in this kind of weather?
- Where is the weather the best? Where is it the worst? Say why.

Key for weather symbols

Wind		Partly cloudy
Temperature	$\frac{20^{\circ}\text{C}}{31^{\circ}\text{C}}$	Rain

Let's write

Monthly rainfall: Newville

Imagine that you are going to read the weather forecast on TV using the map on the opposite page. Write down what you will say for each province.

Fill in the names of the provinces	Describe the weather. First say what the temperature will be, and then say whether it will be rainy, cloudy or sunny.

Let's read

Read the chart showing the amount of rainfall for Newville over 12 months. Talk to your partner about how much rain fell in each month.

Let's write

Now answer these questions.

Which month had the most rain?

Which was the driest month?

Which months make up the rainy season?

How much rain fell this year?

Which months had the same amount of rain?

Which month(s) had no rain?

When do you think is the best time for farmers to start planting their crops? Why?

hot*hotter*hottest

Let's do

Make a weather chart. Cut out the weather icons from the bottom of the page and paste them onto this map in the different provinces.

Let's talk

Once you have pasted in the icons, talk to your friend about your weather chart. Say what the weather is in each of the provinces.

ADJECTIVES: You will remember that nouns are naming words for people, places and things. Adjectives give us information about a person, place or thing. They describe nouns.

They tell us how something or someone looks, feels, sounds, smells or tastes and they help to make what you write and say more interesting.

Let's talk

Look at these pictures. They all refer to nouns. Tell your friend how these things look, smell, feel or taste.

Let's write

Now match the adjectives in the first column with the nouns in the second column.

crunchy	tea

Choose five pairs of nouns and adjectives from the lists and use them in five sentences.

Stories without adjectives are

Let's write

Read the story below. Then write an adjective for each noun and see how much more interesting the story becomes.

It was a _____ day.

I got out of my _____ bed.

I put on a pair of _____ pants and a _____ jersey.

I drank some _____ juice and ate a _____ sandwich.

I felt excited when I got onto the _____ bus and then _____.

Now write eight sentences about how this story ends. Use adjectives to describe all the nouns.

Past tense: Usually when we write in the past tense we add -ed to the verb.

Some verbs are different and they change completely, for example run – ran. We call these irregular verbs.

Let's write

Let's read

Most school children exercise all the time without even thinking about it. They exercise when they play in the playground or kick a ball at school or run for the bus.

When you exercise, you help your body to grow strong so that it will be able to do what you need it to do. Try to be active every day! Why don't you try swimming, jogging, walking, cycling, stretching, dancing or playing soccer or netball?

Exercise gives you a happy heart

When you exercise your heart pumps more, you breathe faster and your body gets more oxygen. This makes your heart stronger.

Every minute of exercise is important.

Exercise strengthens muscles

Exercise makes your muscles stronger. You can do much more without feeling tired.

Exercise makes you flexible

Exercise and stretching make your body more flexible. This means that you can move your arms and legs freely without feeling tightness or pain.

Exercise keeps your weight in balance

When you exercise, your body stores just the right amount of fat. That helps you to keep your weight in balance – not too thin and not too fat.

Cut down on watching TV and playing computer games.

Let's read

Read the story and then fill in a good title for it.

The beginning

Lulu was a very selfish ten-year-old. She lived in a big house in a beautiful neighbourhood. As an only child she was spoilt.

She always had nice things to eat, which she munched in front of her friends without sharing with them. She never shared her toys either.

One sunny Saturday afternoon, Adam, Muzi and Kate went to play with Lulu. They decided to teach her a good lesson.

The middle

Muzi took his new skateboard along with him. The children took turns skating up and down the long driveway at Lulu's house on Muzi's skateboard.

Lulu had begged her parents for a skateboard at Christmas but they refused to get her one. She became angry and sulky when her friends wouldn't let her have a turn.

"You get your own skateboard, Lulu," called Adam. "Then you can join in the fun!"

Lulu felt very downhearted and disappointed. She had expected to enjoy the afternoon, but now she felt bored and sad. She realised how unkind she had been towards her friends and how sad they must have felt.

The end

Suddenly she had an idea. "Why don't you all come inside and have some juice and chocolate cake?" she said to them. "And afterwards we can play on my computer."

Lulu's friends were surprised at her sudden change of attitude. They were happy that Lulu was no longer thinking only of herself. They thought that she would start sharing her toys and sweets more often.

Before you read

- Look at the pictures and headings and try to predict what the text will be about.
- Skim the page to see what you will read about.

While you read

- Compare your predictions with what you read.
- If you don't understand a section, read it again slowly. Read it aloud.

Circle the letter next to the correct answer.

How did Lulu's friends feel about her selfish behaviour?

Let's do

In your group, make up a role play of the story. You will need four characters: Lulu, Kate, Adam and Muzi.

Let's write

Imagine you are Lulu. Write a paragraph of about 40 words summarising what happened to you today.

Let's write

Fill in the adjectives that describe what Lulu was like at the beginning and the end of the story.

Let's write

Write a description of Lulu's character at the beginning of the story. When you have completed it, underline all the descriptive words you have used.

Now write a 40 word description of your best friend. When you have completed it, underline all the descriptive words you have used.

Looking at verbs

Verbs are words that tell us what a person or a thing is doing.

The boy kicks the ball. The leaf fell onto the ground.

A verb is the most important word in a sentence; without it a sentence won't make sense, e.g. The boy the ball or The leaf onto the ground.

Let's write

Read the sentences and then underline all the verbs or doing words. You will see that they are all in the past tense. Then circle the person or thing that is doing the action. These words will all be nouns.

Lulu ate chocolate and chips.	The children played in Lulu's garden.
Lulu made the tea.	The dog chased Adam.
The children played on Lulu's computer.	Muzi rode his new skateboard.
Lulu shared her toys with the children.	Lulu poured the juice and the children drank it quickly.

Let's talk

Plan a story about someone like Lulu who changes her behaviour during the story.

Work with your friends to make up a story about someone who was unfriendly but later became friendly.

- Use a mind map to help you to plan your writing
- Write a rough draft
- Ask a friend to edit the draft
- Revise your text and make the necessary corrections
- Then write it neatly in your book.

Let's write

Complete this mind map to plan your story.

Let's talk

Look at the title and at the pictures and say what you think this story will be about.

Do you keep a diary?

What do people write in diaries?

Let's read

Mandu liked to write in her diary every day. Each day, she wrote down what she did during the day.

She also wrote down her secrets that she did not want anyone else to see. She knew she needed to have a good hiding place for her diary. She looked around her bedroom and wondered where she could hide it, where nobody else would find it. Eventually she decided to hide it under her bed.

One afternoon, when Mandu and her friend Anna came back from school, Mandu found her diary lying wide open on the floor of her bedroom.

"Oh, look Anna! Someone has been reading my diary!" she yelled.

"Don't worry," Anna advised her. "Just find a better place to keep it in future."

They examined the diary. "Look at these dirty fingerprints," Anna said.

"This is a good clue."

"I bet it's my younger brother, Thabo," Mandu said. "Thabo always has dirty fingers." But then she remembered her brother was only 5 and he couldn't read yet.

Then she found a blond hair between the pages of the diary. "This is an important clue," she said. "Someone with blond hair must have read my diary. Everybody in my family has black hair. So who could it be? Who do I know that has blond hair?" she asked, looking suspiciously at Anna's blond hair.

The two girls decided to set a trap. Mandu put her diary back under her bed. She sprinkled some flour on the floor next to her bed.

If anyone came near her diary, they would find the footprints in the flour. The girls left the room, hid around the corner and waited!

Before you read

- Look at the pictures and headings and try to predict what the text will be about.
- Skim the page to see what you will read about.

While you read

- Compare your predictions with what you read.
- If you don't understand a section, read it again slowly. Read it aloud.

Suddenly, they heard scratching noises coming from the bedroom. They ran back into Mandu's room. What did they see?

The floor was covered in floury paw prints. And there was the culprit! Zola, Mandu's dog, which had long white hair, was playing with the diary! The girls could not believe their eyes.

So Zola was the diary reader! "Next time," said Anna, running her fingers through her blond hair, "you will have to find a much better place to hide your diary."

Let's read

In the first term you read a fable about The boy who cried "wolf". In this fortnight we will look at other fables.

What is a fable?

A fable is a story about magical creatures, animals, plants and places. It tells a story with a moral message. Most fables are very old and many, like "The boy who cried 'spaceship'", are retold in a modern setting, but with the same message. You will find animals that can speak, and natural settings with forests and rivers, in most fables.

Let's talk

- Look at the pictures on the opposite page. What is this fable about?
- Does it include animals that can talk?
- Look at the picture and say what the setting is, where the story happens.
- Remove the next page from your book. Cut the page on the red lines and fold it on the black lines to form a book. When you have done this, read the story in your group. Fill in the open speech bubbles. Also fill in any missing parts of the story on the open lines.

Let's do

After you have read the story, use the description to draw the race track where the hare and the tortoise had their race.

The animals cheered with excitement as the tortoise crossed the winning line. They cheered so loudly the noise was heard by the animals in the next forest several kilometres away. When the bear awarded the trophy to the tortoise, he said:

"Slow but steady progress wins the race."

8

The hare and the tortoise

Step 2: Fold on the dotted line

Step 3: Staple on the side

1

Step 1: Fold on the dotted line

The hare ran ahead of the tortoise. He kept looking back to see the tortoise. He laughed at her.

Eventually the day of the race arrived. All the forest animals came to support the hare. They cheered and waved flags. They blew their vuvuzelas and sang songs.

The bear was the starter. "On your marks, get set, GO!" he shouted.

Go, tortoise, go! Don't be slow!

Hare and tortoise lived in the forest. The hare was very proud of his speed. He always made fun of the tortoise because she was so slow.

To the hare's surprise, the tortoise challenged him to a race. "We will run across the field, over the carrot patch and up to the duck pond," she said.

Soon the news of the race was all over the forest. All the animals and birds heard about it.

The hare decided to train to get fit for the race.

3

The animals were very excited and began to cheer when they saw the tortoise coming closer to the winning line. They cheered and blew their vuvuzelas.

The noise woke the rabbit up. The tortoise was almost at the winning line! He jumped up and raced up behind her.

7

The hare believed that he was the winner of the race. He decided to relax under a tree and listen to some music. When the tortoise got closer, he could just jump up and run to the winning line.

6

Let's write

Read through your story on the previous page and make a list of all the verbs that you used. Circle those that are in the past tense.

Let's talk

Pretend you are a sports reporter and you have to give a report on the race between the frog and snail. What will you say?

Some more verbs

Here is a list of special verbs called stative verbs. These are verbs such as have, like, seem, understand, know, which we use mainly to talk about a situation, instead of an action.

Examples: I hate sweets (hate is a stative verb) and I eat sweets (eat is an action verb)

Let's write

Fill in the correct verb in each of these sentences.

agree	I _____ that we have a lot of homework.

Read these sentences with your friend.

Underline the subject in red. The subject is the person or thing doing the action.

Underline the verb in blue. The verb is the doing word.

Underline the object in green. This tells you what or who the verb affects.

He drank his tea.

The cats chase the mice.

Ann liked Jabu.

The chef burned the food.

The boy broke the window.

The girl flew a kite.

She broke the window.

I filled my glass.

He washes his face.

Mandu hid her diary.

The bear started the race.

Ann wrote an e-mail.

Now look at these sentences. Underline the subject and the verb. These sentences do not have objects.

Intransitive verbs do not need an object to make complete sense.

She reads.

The dog sleeps.

We eat.

They work.

She cries.

They run.

Cats purr.

The boat sank.

Let's write

Now find and underline the verbs in these sentences.
