

Pledge your support for the class of 2010

In the build up to the 2010 FIFA World Cup™ we stood together as a nation in support of our team and our country. We learnt a valuable lesson, that together we can do anything we put our souls into. If we pledge that same support to our Class of 2010 we can give them all the inspiration and motivation they need to succeed, not only in their final examinations, but also in life.

You flew the flag for Bafana Bafana, now start to Fly the Flag for the Class of 2010 and show your support.

- Assist Learners by facilitating study groups in safe places
- Encourage them to get their exam timetable
- Assist learners with drawing up a study timetable
- Volunteer your time towards assisting learners with revision
- Assist with printing past exam papers, additional study material.
- Be a great resource for information in your community
- Limit disruptions during study periods in fact, declare study hours in your street and ask your neighbors to commit to them
