QUESTION 70.

Response

The district has plans to improve performance in Physical Sciences and Mathematics in all schools under Ndwedwe Local Municipality. Amongst other activities aimed to improve results with 2023 cohorts include:

1. Pairing performing schools with non-performing schools.
2. Deployment of lead educators among schools.
3. Revision documents and topic tests are given to learners.
4. Peer tutoring in the form of Professional Learning Communities (PLCs).
5. Strengthening PLCs for educators.
6. Subject Advisors group learners, based on their performance; and teach them during recession periods.
