

04 OCTOBER 2020

BASIC EDUCATION MINISTER LEADS 2020 WORLD TEACHERS DAY CELEBRATIONS IN MAMELODI

Basic Education Minister Mrs Angie will tomorrow, Monday 05 October 2020 celebrate and honour the nation's teachers on World Teachers Day at the Mamelodi Teachers Centre in Pretoria.

Every year on the 5th of October the world stops to celebrate its teachers, its everyday heroes and its selfless citizens, a day that has been set aside to show appreciation to educators globally as well as to raise awareness and understanding on the work and value of teachers. This year the Department will lead celebrates under the theme “Teachers: Leading in crisis, reimagining the future”, As the nation acknowledges and celebrates teachers that have put themselves on the frontline as the sector embraces the new Normal.

Members of the media are invited to attend the World Teachers Day Celebration as follows.

Date: Tomorrow, Monday 05 October 2020

Time: 08h30 for 09h00

Venue: Mamelodi Teacher Centre, 20715 Serapeng St, Phumulamcashi Buffer Zone, Pretoria, 0122

The event will also be live streamed across the Departments Social Media Pages as follows

Facebook: DBE SA

Twitter: DBE_SA

ISSUED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF BASIC EDUCATION

Media Enquiries:

Elijah Mhlanga - Head of Communication: 083 580 8275 | Hope Mokgathe - Spokesperson to Minister: 079 817 0427

Terence Khala - Media Liason Officer: 081 758 1546

basic education

Department:
Basic Education
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

