STATEMENT ON THE COURT RULING REGARDING THE RELEASE OF THE NATIONAL SENIOR CERTIFICATE EXAMINATION RESULTS ON VARIOUS PLATFORMS

The Department of Basic Education has noted the Pretoria High Court ruling regarding the release of the National Senior Certificate examinations results on media platforms.

The Department will abide by the ruling. This means that the Department will make available the results to stakeholders who requested access. The conditions of the court ruling must be taken into account in line with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013.

In addition to accessing results from media platforms, the Department also urges candidates to register on the website to view the results when they become available. Candidates will have to go through a two-step verification process before receiving confirmation of their registration. A 13-digit ID number and Exam Number will be required for registration.

The DBE website is zero-rated, which means it can be accessed whether you have data or not. Registration is now open!. More than 30,000 people have successfully registered.
